

NO OUTLET

LUST,
PORNOGRAPHY,
SINFUL SEX
AND THE ROAD
THAT LEADS TO NOWHERE

ROBERT H. FLORES

No Outlet is Copyright © 2007-2020 Robert H. Flores

All rights reserved. This booklet is to be freely distributed in digital format or in print, free of charge.

Scripture is from the King James Version

Printed in the United States of America

8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1 • 17 18 19 20 21

---

www.bibleartbooks.com

---

“Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery: But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.”

– Matthew 5:27-30

2007

- Carnal women live to tempt men and carnal men live to be tempted.
- The beauty of a woman is something that should be protected, not exploited.

- You Have A Choice

You don't have to obey your body. It does not control you. You control it. You are dead to sin. Crucified with Christ. The Holy Spirit is the engine of sanctification. Walk in the Spirit and you will not fulfill the lusts of the flesh. Discipline is our will working with the Spirit. The holiness of God is both what destroys us and what gives us life. The first encounter with God's holiness is to cry out for death.

- Pornography will chew you up and spit you out.

2009

- Have you ever felt guilty over stealing something? Well, adultery is the theft of another person's spouse.

- Prayer Against Your Flesh

Every time your flesh wants to make you lust, ask yourself, “Is this the path God wants me to be on? Because anything not on God's path, I don't want. I'm following Him, not my flesh. Lord, direct me in the paths of righteousness."

- Your flesh goes fishing every time it throw out bait (an evil thought, an evil suggestion, an evil "what if", etc.) It's up to your spirit if you are going to eat the bait or reject it.

- Don't Be Controlled By Your Lusts

You cannot be ruled by your sexuality. It will inevitably turn to evil desires 100% of the time. You need to hand your sexuality over to God. It's His. He knows how to use it. You are not your own. Your sexuality is not your own, for you were bought with a price.

2010

- Advertised Sluts

Webster's Dictionary defines "slut" as: n. 1. a slatternly woman.

2. A prostitute. In the mailbox, every month, comes a certain advertisement which all the men in America know about:

Victoria's Secret (or, more appropriately, Victoria's Slut). To be perfectly honest, any woman who accepts cash to bear her breasts in lingerie for a photograph, and that photograph will then be printed millions of times in a monthly advertisement is, by definition, a slut. She is no different than the prostitutes in the Red Light District. A prostitute is paid for her body and so is a model for lingerie.

- Sex Scenes in Hollywood

Sexual intercourse is the most intimate and loving human experience between two individuals. To simulate that act for the purpose of film (pornography) takes the most debased liar and hypocritical actor. Think about it. If two people were really having sexual intercourse, then they would not be acting. There would be no cameras and crew recording them because it's the most intimate act of all human experience. And, if two people were pretending to have sexual intercourse (i.e. acting) then it's not real and it would be the most fake thing in the world. In other words, sexual intercourse is the most intimate experience in the world; any simulation of that becomes the most devalued thing in the world (i.e. the sex scene). It is devaluing to the actors, writers and film crew. In actors' and actresses' search to portray "realism" and the fact that they act for the camera proves them to be the most debased liars and hypocrites in the world. And these are the people that the American culture worships! In their quest for realism, Hollywood just cheapens the most intimate act in all of human experience. They turn it into something pornographic.

- Psalm 34 says, "Lord, fight against those who fight against us." That includes our own flesh. "Lord fight against our flesh that fights against us."

- The Best Sex

The best sex isn't done with the best bodies, it's done with the best love. Bodies are inconsequential to sex. The best love can only be shown when Jesus is in between two. It's only the love that God has given two of His people that will work. That is what Hollywood fails to understand. They think "hot sex" is with the two most beautiful people. They are actors! There is nothing real or "best" about that fakeness.

2011

- To be fleshly minded is limiting. To be spiritually minded is freeing. (see Romans 8:6)

- You rip away your holiness when you are using your sexuality to sin.

- God is more beautiful than sin.

- Unfaithfulness to Your Creator

As disgusting as marital unfaithfulness is, it's nothing compared to unfaithfulness to your Creator-God. That's right: unfaithfulness in the physical sense is but a shadow, a shallow representation of unfaithfulness in the spiritual sense. Worshiping anything other than your Creator, not putting your faith in Him, not trusting in

His saving blood—all of these sins are worse than marital infidelity and sexual immorality. It is spiritual adultery.

2012

- Much Beauty

With much beauty, comes great responsibility. Women who are very beautiful have been given a gift. They should use their gift for the glory of God, not for making money and being a whore-for-hire.

- How Is That Free Love Working Out?

Ask a woman who has been cheated on, “Do you still believe in Free Love?” Freedom from God’s Law always brings terrible consequences. Despite what the Free-Love advocates say, freedom to sin is just another form of slavery.

- Knowledge That You Don’t Need To Know

Lust of women is just lust of knowledge in another way. It answers the question, “I wonder what it would be like to. . .” or, “I’m curious to see. . .” Don’t fall for your flesh’s lusts or for Satan’s lies. You don’t need to “know”, just like Eve didn’t need to know.

- Satan’s Lies

Satan’s lie is that lust “opens up more options.” He wants you to believe that lust isn’t constraining, it’s freeing. Sure, once you choose to believe that lie, then all sinful women are at your disposal. Your options seem limitless at that point. You get “all” the women. But, unfortunately, you don’t get “all” the women. In fact, you don’t get any of the women. You don’t get true love. Your freedom is nothing but emptiness. You are free: free from ever finding someone who truly cares about you. You’re free from ever growing old with a true woman. You’re free to never know how to love someone else. Is that the kind of freedom you want? Those aren’t options for life, those are options on how to have a meaningless life, a living death. There is true freedom in true love. There is real happiness to obtain in true love. There is exclusivity in true love.

- Marriage and Lust

There is no intimacy in any sexual relationship beyond marriage as God designed it to be. Intimacy doesn't exist other than in one married man and woman with a relationship with Christ at the center. Anything other than that and it's just humans copulating.

- Lust is still lust even if it's a person who doesn't exist. You can lust after an ideal.

- Nurturing Lust

Having lustful thoughts and nurturing them, means that you're not trusting God's faithfulness to protect you from sinning. He said to not lust—don't you think that if you are striving to not lust that He will keep you from lusting? It's when you start fearing the sin (i.e. lust) more than God, that you start having issues.

- Men's Sexuality

Men, you cannot be ruled by your sexuality. You can't fight your evil sexuality in your own strength. It will inevitably turn to evil desires 100% of the time. You need to hand your sexuality over to God. It's His. He knows how to use it. You are not your own. Your sexuality is not your own, for you were bought with a price. Quit thinking evil that good may come.

- Fighting Lust In Your Own Strength

When you try to not lust in your own strength—is when you will fall into lust. Your holiness isn't dependent on you. Your living a good, moral life isn't in your own power. It's God's burden. It's only in His power to keep you from sinning. Your sexuality is not Satan's to play around with. "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." (2 Corinthians 5:17)

- When you don't lust, you are showing your allegiance to God.

- Three-Tiered Lust

Lust is 3-tiered. According to Jesus, there is: 1)physical adultery and 2) visual/looking adultery. Both of these are sin, but what about option 3) the desire to look (but don't)? Is it sin to have a sinful heart and then fight against it? Isn't that more along the lines of temptation? True, it's not the first two options, but a struggle against your flesh is a struggle of faith against God. So, yes, unfaithfulness (untruthfulness) to God is sin, if you're wrestling with the lies your flesh is feeding you. Let's look at it a bit deeper. Is your heart leading you to want to sin or are you leading it to sin? Either way, are you really excused by: a) having a sinful nature or b) wanting to sin (deep down)? Is your heart really separate from you or is it the very depth of who you are? Either way, I think it's all sin towards God and all men have to ask for His help to fight their flesh. You can't really be proud of yourself for "fighting for God" when you are still fighting yourself. You should be proud of when you're winning a battle (and not sinning), but the fact that you're fighting for God against your flesh is what you're supposed to be doing! No pats-on-the-back there. When you're winning, no pats-on the back there either, because it's God winning inside you! Your pride is only what God does in you and you're humbled in only in what you can't do yourself and who you are in Christ. Your sinful nature IS your sinful heart. You can't separate who you are and what you desire from what your heart drums up. You are sinful to the core. Your sinful heart IS your flesh. When you're fighting your flesh not to desire, not to look, then you are doing good. But you are only doing good in Christ's strength. You can't fight yourself by yourself. You need Someone stronger: The Holy Spirit. "If we confess our sins (outward physical signs of sin and deep-rooted sinful heart issues), He is faithful and just to forgive us of all our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness (including those deep rooted sinful heart issues)". (1 John 1:9) And that's really what all men need: a changed heart, so that they don't desire wrong things. So, they don't want to sin. So that they don't believe their flesh's/heart/sin-nature's lies. People's hearts lie so much. It makes them want to want to lust. They may not sin much on the outside, but their inside sins 24/7! Oh, that God would change all hearts to seek superior pleasure in Him.

- Push Down the Fleshly Desires

Christians shouldn't be thinking about fleshly things. We should be fighting our flesh as it tries to lust after fleshly things. However, fleshly desires are easier to have than spiritual desires. They offer immediate gratification, a shortcut to happiness and freedom. But what your heart doesn't realize is that its desires follow after the deceits and lies of the devil (which offer death and slavery, not freedom). When you lust after women, you are doubting God (who is inside you) to keep you from lusting and to give you pleasures beyond your petty sins of lust. We all need Jesus' help to rise above these fleshly desires and push them down. "For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God." (Romans 8:5-8)

- Lust is the object of your faith that isn't God.

- On Beauty

There is nothing wrong with beauty. The problem is when you start lusting after beauty. All beauty should point you towards God—to know Him more; not to take you away from Him. All beautiful things: animals, landscapes, women, all came from God's creativity. However, as beautiful as those things are, they are but a shadow of how beautiful God's beauty is. His beauty is incomparable and incomprehensible to anything we have here on Earth. Not only that, but He gave up His beauty to become sin—the most ugly thing—for us. God didn't hold onto His beauty as something to be grasped, but willingly gave up His beauty to save us. Now that is beauty: selfless, gracious, powerful, vibrant and living.

- Always complete a lustful thought with a truth about sin: "What if I (fill in the blank) . . . that would be sin and that is judged according to God's law."

- Discipled By A Lie

Lust always starts off with a desire for pleasing yourself. It starts out as a doubting of the truth (i.e. being content with your present life). Lust is a lie; taking a non-truth and following after it. You are literally being discipled by a lie. The Lie is your master and you will follow it in all its instructions that it desires.

- Satisfaction Only By God's Law

Satisfaction will never be obtained by ditching God's Law in our heads to lust after others. When you lust, you are doubting God's power to give you satisfaction by His Law. Lustful people think they need to rip the control out of God's hands to get satisfaction. Lust is not the path that God has for your life. It only leads to destruction (the complete opposite of satisfaction).

- God Testing You

God tests you by allowing lustful thoughts to come into your head, to see how faithful you will remain to Him. Will you be faithful to Him or to the new, shiny lie that just came into your head? Every lustful thought is an opportunity to fight for God and His righteousness.

- Trust in God is the Destroyer of (Lustful) Worlds

- When you lust after a woman, you set her up as a goddess, which not only makes you an adulterer but an idolater.

- Obey God

You don't have to obey your flesh. It doesn't control you. God is the only One that control your sinful flesh. If you are a Christian, you are already dead to sin. So walk in the Spirit and don't fulfill the lusts of the flesh. You must believe that obedience to God is more satisfying than disobedience. That is how you will destroy your lust.

2013

- The Authority of Pornography

The pornography industry tells the world how to treat women. In other words, their opinion of women leads the way for the world. The porn industry is an authority figure for the world. My question is—who made them an authority? Why do 40 million American adults who regularly visit pornographic websites listen to the pornography industry when it wants to know how to treat women? Why are they so enchanted with what they have to say about women? God is the only authority on how to treat women. God knows everything there is to know about women and how they should be treated. God, through His Word, shows women more respect than the porno industry could ever dream of. The porno industry is strong. Its might is in the sheer amount of dollars it produces and is able to invest in itself. Consider the fact that it is an estimated $13 Billion dollar industry worldwide. Every second, 30,000 people are viewing pornography online. In other words that's 30,000 people being disciplined on how to treat women (with the average age of exposure being at age 9). Though the pornography industry is strong and has many evangelists and disciples, God is truly stronger. God doesn't need money to draw people to Him. He has something much more powerful—His love. And, it is His love that will draw people to His authority on how to treat women. Two authorities on women: Porno Industry and God. Who will people listen to?

- What is the difference between a heterosexual and a homosexual who are both sent to hell? Nothing. They both love their sin and hate God.

- Sexual Deviants

I would never let a child molester or homosexual watch my kids. Sexual deviants disqualify themselves as trustworthy individuals for anything family related. The homosexual and the molester are both sexual deviants. Here is my question: why is the molester chastised by society and the homosexual elevated? That makes no sense to me. They both are filthy sinners and are in need of judgment by God.

- Beauty for Hire

A Victoria's Secret Model (i.e. Jazelle) has made almost $1 Billion in her modeling career. Wow, that's very impressive. See, young women, how much money can be made by flaunting your half-naked body in front of photographers? See how much cash can be made by someone who has no self-respect? A lot! The porno industry thrives on women with no self-worth. Does this famous model feel proud when she goes home, after a long day of bearing her breasts to the world? Is she able to hold her head up high when she deposits her paychecks into her bank account? Or, does she cry herself to sleep because no one respects her? Maybe, deep down, she knows she is only a piece of meat to be photographed. Money can't buy self-worth and no big pay day can buy that for her. What would make a woman disrespect herself so much that she's willing to degrade her body to porn-fare? What kind of sick philosophy does it take to love cash more than you own self? What kind of demented woman throws her body away like a piece of trash to people who don't care? Time isn't on Jazelle's side and she knows it. Beauty is so fleeting. She has got to work fast to get her cash grab, because every day, more and more wrinkles are going to make her less attractive. The more wrinkles and gray hair she gets will make her less of a hot-commodity. There will be a day when the Photoshop hours of touch-up artists won't warrant working on Jazelle's photos anymore and the photographers will kick her to the curb. She is only as good as a silicon-implanted, botox-injected, twenty-something. If she starts looking like she's in her 30's, it's the beginning of the end, and she should start looking for other work. There's always the Red Light district downtown. They are always hiring. Victoria's Secret models actually have a lot in common with run of the mill street prostitutes: they both have no self-worth, they both love being worshiped for their bodies, they both use their bodies to get what they want and they trade their bodies for the almighty dollar. If Jazelle thinks that being on the cover of a famous magazine makes her any less of a prostitute, she is mistaken. If she thinks she is more high-end than her Red Light District counterparts, think again. Her body, which she has traded for money, will never give her satisfaction in life. No young woman should ever look at these famous models and "wish they had what they have". They have less than nothing for they have rejected the God that created their beauty.

- Should Men Lust?

God made beautiful women in the world. Does that mean men are to lust after beautiful women whenever they see them? No. Men should thank Him for His creativity and move on. There's no need to lust, keep looking, think back, worry, have issues, ask if you did something wrong, feel guilty, feel unfaithful, etc. Think about these verses when you are tempted to lust after beauty: "Lead us not into temptation." (Matthew 6:13) "God cannot be tempted by evil nor does He himself tempt anyone." (James 1:13b) "...was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin" (Hebrews 4:15) "Blessed is the man who endures temptation..." (James 1:12a) "For in that He Himself has suffered, being tempted, He is able to aid those who are tempted." (Hebrews 2:18)

- Little Difference

There is little difference between child pornography and adult pornography. One is the lust of a smaller human being and one is the lust of a larger human being. Both are considered fornication according to the Bible.

- Women and Their Looks

When women look around to see who is "checking them out", it just shows how proud they really are. They are proud of how they look and they want to see if a man is admiring their beauty. Their value is wrapped up in men lusting after them. What kind of woman would want a man to lust after them? Because lust, for a woman is a form a worship. The man is willing to commit sin to admire her beauty. What else is that man willing to sacrifice to experience that beauty? Women that are wrapped up in their looks think they have it all, but all they have is worshipers of lust—who could care less about the woman's heart. Beauty is the bait they give, but men just take the bait, and leave no affection for her heart. The man gets hurt (because lust doesn't satisfy) and the woman gets hurt because no one will ever know her heart or who she is.

- The Gospel for Sexual Sinners

Think of all the sexual actions and thoughts that you've ever done in life. I know you remember them. Everyone does. Those sins cannot be erased by anything you do. Good works, obeying traffic laws, giving gifts to others won't erase your sins. You can't escape your sin list. You can run; but you can't hide from your sins. Nothing can erase your guilt. More sin only hurts it worse. There is no cleaner that will clean you. There is no way you can clean yourself. There is only ONE WAY that you can be made holy: Jesus Christ. Indeed, He is the only One that can take away your guilt and shame. He is the only One that can erase your sin-list. Why? How does He have the power to do that? It's because He took on your sin list on the cross. He became sin for you, so you wouldn't have to take the guilt. Sin has consequences—deadly consequences. He took all of those deadly consequences on himself. God did not have to prove how glorious He was to us by taking our sin. He did not have to suffer and die for us. But the fact that He did shows us how beautiful, holy, just and wonderfully awesome He really is. His glory should be worshiped for who He is. But, now, in addition to who he is, His actions should make us fall down in worship to him. His beauty isn't just in his character now. His beauty is in what He DID with His own hands. You don't have to carry your sin-burden anymore! Jesus took our debt and has given you a new life in Him. All you have to do is accept it. He took the punishment. The hammer fell on Him so it wouldn't fall on you. Who has ever done something so great as that for you? Only God. That is a love that is not to be spurned. That is a love to be embraced completely. To ignore that kind of love is to ignore it to our own detriment. He has lavished his love upon us (in every sense of the word). The least we can do is to love Him back. We should be living for Him rather than for our own selfish and prideful gain. Though He has taken the punishment of sin away from us, unfortunately, we still have a sin nature we have to deal with. We hate sin, on this side of Christ. We don't want to sin anymore. Christ helps us with that. He is using sin to point us continually back to the cross and to make us into the image of Himself. If you turn to God, all these riches are yours. If you don't, you will continue to wallow in your guilt every moment, and then, judgment after you die.

- Waste of Beauty

Pornography is a waste of beauty. The exposure of beauty to an unknown audience is such a desolate waste of a woman's body. The nakedness of a woman, for a camera, is sad. Any woman who is willing to degrade herself for a bag of money is a woman who sees no value in herself. God, on the other hand, says to that woman: "You are worth everything to me. Don't sell yourself to these users. I love you. Love me in return."

- Illegal Sex

All people who live for illegal sex (i.e. homosexuals, adulterers, pornographers, child molesters, etc.) find their value, identity, purpose, hopes and dreams in what they do with their sexual organs. If you were to take away their sexual organs (and what they do with them) all of their purpose for living would disappear. What they valued would disappear. Their dreams and their aspirations would disappear. They would no longer be able to worship their own perverted sexuality anymore. All hope, identity and purpose for life would be dashed to pieces. For a sexual deviant to base his entire foundation for life on his deviancy is truly absurd, because it can be taken away at any time. On the other hand, having Jesus Christ as one's foundation is a foundation that can never be taken away. Basing one's life on sexual immorality is but a shallow, weak, unsatisfying and sinful foundation that will crumble someday. Are sex-maniacs ready for that day when their whole life falls apart on the foundation that they've made for themselves? Sexuality was a gift from God—not a gift to be worshiped. Sex has become an idol for the feelings it produces—that it has replaced God as the Lord of people's lives. But it is a cruel lord—a lord that always needs more, more and more. God, on the other hand, gives, gives and gives in hopes that you turn to Him.

- Pornography is a slave driver. It will take you in and even if you want to get out at some point, it will keep you.

- Absence of Fidelity

Pornography consistently and effectively points people away from faithfulness in marriage. It says, “Who needs marriage when all sexual fulfillment can be found here?” It spits in God’s face because God says true sexual fulfillment can only be found in marriage. Pornography is anti-marriage to the core. It’s philosophy equals sex outside of marriage. It stomps on faithfulness between a man and wife. It laughs at marriage and says, “This way more exciting.” It points people to a lie instead of to Jesus’ design for sexuality. Jesus designed marriage and love and our sexuality for His good purpose; He is the authority on this subject. Not the pornography industry. The pornography publishes an artificial, synthetic and deathly-ill version of God’s version of marriage and love-making.

- Molesters Will Be Punished

For an adult or relative to molest a child is to destroy the image of God as a loving parent. It is to steal innocence from that child. It’s so disgusting. Just like the slave trade—it robs the child of hope, love and joy in this world. And their future spouse will feel robbed as well. Jesus knows what it’s like to have innocence stripped out of him. He will not allow molesters to go unpunished.

- Holiness and Virginit

Virginit represents, in a human form, God’s holiness. Not just anyone can get to God and not just anyone can get to a woman. In a woman’s case, it should be only her husband. In God’s case, it is only someone who is in Christ. This society likes to make fun of virginit and holiness. That’s no accident. The two are linked. Virginit is a type, or a symbol of holiness. Both are ridiculed in today’s society. But when holiness is ridiculed it is , at the heart, a ridicule of God’s nature.

- Modesty on a Case by Case Basis

It’s ironic to me that a woman who normally wears inappropriate clothing (i.e. that shows her body on purpose) is embarrassed if there happens to be a rip in her jeans (i.e. that showed her underwear not on purpose). Women like this want to be in control of what they show the world and how they show it; Their modesty is on a case by case basis. And, if showing their body is out of their hands (by accident) then they don't want it. Hypocrites.

- Marriage's Trophy

Sex is good within marriage. Someone, long ago, after the Fall, took that idea and asked, "If sex is good within marriage, then maybe sex is good outside of marriage?" – hence was born adultery. Then, once adultery's fad-status subsided then other things came into vogue. Soon, sex was being applied to everyone and everything, of all ages: same sex, animals and inanimate objects. Innocent animals and children of all ages were subjected to peoples' perverted revelations. They took God's good design for sex (which was good only in one context) and opened the floodgates for all scenarios and perversions. They said, "If sex is good in this scenario, then it must be good in other scenarios" and hence this is the devastation in the world today. There are more sex slaves today in the world than there ever has been in the history of the world. But, in spite of the devastation and the destroyed lives these sexual deviants have caused, people still think that sex within marriage is still not the only option. People like options, even if it hurts them. They like freedom, not commitment. Commitment is what makes sex wonderful. Freedom outside of that commitment makes sex un-enjoyable. For example, just because ketchup is good, doesn't mean you should put it on vanilla ice cream. Coca-Cola is good, but that doesn't mean you should dump it in your gas tank. Anytime someone re-engineers God's good design, it only leads to destruction and lost lives. You can't improve upon perfection. Sex within the context of a married Christian couple is perfection on this earth. Anyone that says that is limiting simply doesn't understand the original design. Stick within the confines of the design and a whole world of love– true love-making– is to be enjoyed. Go outside of those boundaries and a whole world of damnation awaits you. Hebrews 13:4 says, "Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge."

- Women and Their Clothing

Why would a woman want to wear low-cut shirts? It is sad to me to think that women, in their pride, want to be noticed so bad, that they are willing to devalue themselves to get a little bit of attention. Low-cut shirts equals immediate attention by sinful men. Is that the kind of attention women want? Truth be told, men want women who respect themselves, not women who have low self-esteem or devalue themselves by low-cut shirts. Wearing low-cut shirts is a shortcut to attention. But, as with any shortcut, there are consequences. By wearing revealing clothing, women turn themselves into an object to be lusted after (just like a piece of meat in an aquarium full of piranha, it never turns out good for the piece of meat). Is that what women want? See, low-cut shirts are all about present, all-about me-satisfaction NOW. It is never about the future, and developing a relationship further down the road. A woman's body is supposed to be reserved only for her current (or future) husband. It's not to be publicized like some blog. Revealing clothing is a crude, barbaric and immediate way of achieving an attentive audience. But, in some women's quest for power, it is but a small price to pay for the attention they long for. What they don't realize is that small price paid for in the beginning only ends up costing their whole heart in the end. How many relationships started out with revealing clothing end up in broken homes, bitterness, anger, alcohol, drugs, loss of finances and sleepless nights? Low-cut clothing and revealing clothing just is not worth it for any woman who respects herself. Realize this simple fact: showing your chest to the world will never help you find your true love. You will only find a bunch of the wrong kind—the evil kind—of men that treat you like an animal or a piece of meat. Don't downgrade yourself like that. You are worth more than that.

- This society glorifies covenant -breakers (i.e. adulterers). Women love to tempt and create covenant - breakers. Oh, but they sure hate it when that same covenant-breaker breaks up with them.

- Fictionalized Sex

Sex in the movies is just an act. Actors are trying to get their Academy Award (by acting at out sex). Sex in movies is a fiction. Actors know the cameras are rolling so they try to “bump up their game”. How disgusting to take the most intimate human act—making love—and turn it into entertainment. But it falls far short of real making love within a real, loving, Christ-centered marriage. The porno industry and Hollywood have no clue what real love is. What they don’t realize is that they can’t capture real love on camera—only a perverted, twisted version of what they think is love.

- The Word Naked

Naked is a buzzword that is used in a lot of punk-modern marketing. It’s just used for making more money, but it is devoid of any meaning. Look up in the dictionary and you will find under the word, naked, “without clothes”. How can “juice” be without clothes. (Fruit normally doesn’t wear clothes anyway). Or, naked shampoo—shampoo doesn’t wear clothes. It’s nonsensical. If they are trying to say “natural” or “organic” then please just say “natural” or “organic”. Do these companies have to sexualize everything? I know it’s hard for America to not think in sexual terms—in every aspect of their lives—but can they try not to sexualize fruit or shampoo or juice?

- True Freedom

The word “Freedom”, since the 60’s, has meant “uninhibited”. To society it essentially means: no boundaries. No rules. But that is illogical. This world is full of rules: gravity, light, motion, physics. You can’t live your life uninhibited. Go ahead and try walking around naked all day long. Go ahead and eat whatever you want—you won’t live very long. There is freedom within boundaries. That is the world God has made. Freedom with no boundaries is simply slavery. Satan would love for you to take his definition of “freedom” when he knows it will lead to your slavery to him.

- Raise Your Daughters Right

There are some concerned women reporters (i.e. Katy Couric and her documentary: “Hot Girls Wanted”) about young girls being brought into the celebrity scene, by basically having to be prostitutes to make money. Money is the allurements; shame is the wage. This is a problem, but guess what—it’s the lust of money that’s the real problem. It’s the materialistic culture that these girls have been brought up in. It’s their parents for not teaching these girls not to respect their bodies. It’s the porno-industry—the money industry. It’s the Church not calling men out to live holy lives. It’s the carnal nature of men to turn beautiful women into whores. This isn’t an easy problem to fix, but it can be started with preaching the gospel of Christ. “Do not prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to be a whore; lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness.” (Leviticus 19:29)

- Adultery Online

There are websites created for the sole purpose of adulterers and adulteresses to meet and break their marriage vows together in an unholy union. These websites are places where like-minded sinners can worship the god of sex and make new vowsto the god of infidelity. Can you imagine a husband or a wife (that spent so much time building a marriage) go out of their way to destroy their marriage for some one-night stand? Can you imagine that fleeting emotions—rather than truthful marriage vows—would rule their decisions? Adultery is simply a body and another body. There are no other connections there. It’s like a prostitute-customer relationship (except the currency is your own feelings). Do you have any idea how much time, money and resources are spent sneaking around in the shadows? How much time is spent deceiving your spouse? How much time is spent feeling guilty? Adulterers never win in the end. In the wake of their carnal experience, they leave a broken spouse, broken children and a broken soul. Their own soul is ripped apart as they don’t even know who they are. They have to keep track of what reality is versus the reality they tell themselves. What is fiction and non-fiction? Their world is a world of lies and deceit and clearing text messages and looking over their shoulder. Adultery is good at destroying marriages but never building them. It’s easier to destroy the World Trade Center than to actually build it and adulterers act like terrorists to their own family. It takes much longer to make a marriage than to destroy it.

- Hell At Your Fingertips

Imagine having every perverted desire at your fingertips. Imagine all your evil thoughts played out and able to be viewed as photos or videos. That is essentially what the internet is: a conglomeration of perversion and sin. The internet mirrors man's heart: dark, depraved, disgusting and devoid of God. Sure, there are good things on the internet, but the evil far outweighs the good. The internet is like a Tower of Babel, pulling all the best of the evil, of all the world, together in one handy location. Will you fall into the temptation to follow your dark heart to the darkest part of the internet? Or, will you search only for the good, holy and just—to fight the rest of the evil on the internet? Christians have a huge responsibility to turn away from the evil to fight the evil. They must expose the evil with the gospel. The gospel needs to be proliferated more than the evil. And if you're have a hard time not searching the evil desires of your heart—only the gospel can cure crave for lust and depravity.

- Curating Cowardice

The Pornography industry is raising up another generation of cowardice men: men who would rather sink in the depths of fantasy than take the time to develop a loving relationship with their wife. Pornography turns men into boys, using their penises as weapons rather than loving tools for their wives.

- Ripped Apart

The word, "Rape" means "to rip". But how often does a woman, who sleeps around a lot, consider to be ripped apart? 1 Corinthians 6:16-18 says, "What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? For two, saith he, shall be one flesh. But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit. Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body." Sleeping around and living an immoral lifestyle is doing damage to yourself, women.

You are losing yourself to your own philosophy of freedom. God made you and He knows what will satisfy you. Trust Him and live according to His Word. Even if you've been split apart (i.e. raped), God can put you back together again. Nothing is so broken that He cannot fix.

- The Loss of Modesty

Modesty is a term that this society doesn't even know anymore. Modesty simply means, "with great power, comes great responsibility." Young ladies, you have been given a great gift: beauty. How are you going to use that gift from God? For Him or for yourself? We live in a culture that doesn't know what modesty is. When you have teenagers posting photos of themselves in their underwear (or naked)—modesty has gone out the window. But this is the culture we have made for ourselves. When the bikini culture and hippie culture of the 60's have entered into Christian homes, the concept of modesty, as something good, has disappeared. Today, when modesty is talked about it is ridiculed. The Christian girls of today have tremendous pressure to show cleavage and legs to the world. But the Bible says that you are to respect yourself and save yourself for your future husband. The culture goes against the Bible and promotes young ladies to show any and all parts of their body whenever they want. What kind of culture will that create? What kind of men will that kind of young lady attract? Does she want to dress and act like a prostitute? If a lady dresses like a stripper, she'll be treated like a stripper (i.e. cheap, lustful entertainment). Does a young lady want to attract those who watch pornography? There's no real relationship there nor will there ever be. It's the same mentality that allows sex-slavery to exist; that's the kind of men that ladies will attract. If you show your body, you will never be satisfied. If you are modest (as the world mocks) you will be satisfied and live. Respect yourself. Save yourself for your future husband. You will reap so many more benefits than if you just give yourself away to strangers.

- Loose-Living

A woman who slept around before she was married is going to have a rough marriage. Actually, her marriage will be short-lived because of one simple thing: lack of trust. Her husband won't trust her and therefore won't love her (and will probably commit adultery against her, anyway). Or, she won't trust him because all she's known her whole life is men that only want her body (and therefore won't love him and will probably commit adultery against him). This could also be said of a man who slept around before getting married. Sleeping around is the opposite of trust. Loose living is the antithesis of love. Therefore, when a person who has lived that way for so long wants to "settle down"—there is only one way to make that happen: a heart change to Jesus Christ. Anything short of a re-birth inside of that person will result in a failed marriage. Why? Because getting married doesn't change a person's heart. A status change won't make someone trust someone more or be more trustworthy. Marriage is born out of trust, love and respect. If anyone who has lived a sinfully sexual life who wants to have a successful marriage needs to repent and fall on their face to Jesus Christ. Fall in love with Him first and He may have grace upon you and bring you a spouse that will love you unconditionally. But it starts with owning up to your sins and following Jesus.

- Adulterers, the Fools

All men fight lust in their heart. Men (and yes, even "Christian" men) have lustful thoughts towards other women that are not their wives. That is a problem, yes, but, to actually ACT on those lustful thoughts and commit adultery against your wife—wow—you've got some guts. For any Christian men who would do that to their wives and children— all I can say is that I know atheists and agnostics that have been faithful to their wives for decades—what a shame that Christian men would sink lower than that. To commit adultery against your bride— and leave your children fatherless—wow— I would hate to be in your shoes when God judges you. It's one thing to lust in your heart— it's a completely different thing to act on those impulses and throw your wife and children under the bus for a few seconds of pleasure that won't last. The fact that men actually had time to plot and scheme and take the effort to accomplish their adultery— means several things: that they weren't spending time with their wife and that they weren't loving their wife when with her! Some basics: it takes time to love your wife! If you have time to be unfaithful to her, then you have time to love her. But men don't look at their sin in those terms; only selfish and sinful lust and pleasure for a split-second. Here's a fact for you: the women you fornicate with are just like you— they won't be around in a few years. The ironic thing is— you threw away your wife who would have been there through all these years— if you didn't mess up! Now you are entering middle age with no one by your side, children who hate you and your life is in shambles. And you ask yourself, "And for what?" Exactly. What was the point of destroying your life and the lives of your loved ones? You are a selfish fornicator in need of a Savior. Turn to Christ, and pray that He will have mercy on your soul.

- If you have a lust problem, you have a love problem with God.

- The Great Uglifying

Can you think of anything more ugly or more disgusting than pornography? Pornography is truly disgusting as it destroys everything beautiful and good in this world. Your eyes, heart and mind are tainted by the ugliness and, eventually, ugliness is all you will see. Any man who looks at pornography, afterward, feels disgusting and guilty on the inside. As he goes about his day among people, a great devaluing of women occurs: all women start looking ugly to the pornography-addict. Women become a creature to use; not to love and cherish and value. Women are to be used only for self-gratification. It is this mentality that leads to other sexual deviant lifestyles such as: strip clubs, prostitution and using sex-slaves. Anyone who is against sex-slavery should be against pornography. Pornography is the first step that leads to sex-slavery. Pornography has gone on so long in this country (as it was decriminalized) that it can be overlooked as just a past-time. But, that past time is what has led to our present evil age of same-sex "marriage", child molesters, the LGBT movement and all other sexual sins. If pornography doesn't end in this country, sex-slavery and all sexual deviancy will continue.

- Adultery and Materialism

Adultery and materialism go hand in hand. Materialism is the worship of things that will almost always lead to the worship of bodies (adultery). When “getting things” is the source of your joy in life, “getting other men and women” is just around the corner. To be materialistic, one has to lie, cheat and steal. Those traits are then later used to commit adultery. Materialistic satisfaction isn’t something to gloss over, as if it’s one of the “lesser sins”. No, materialism and the love of money almost always is a precursor to adultery and sexual immorality. Don’t be fooled: materialism and the worship of things is very dangerous to your soul. Paul condemns those who are “lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God” (2 Tim 3:4). In 1 Timothy 6:9, Paul warns of materialism: “But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.” Americans tends to think that “loving things” is not as bad as, say, murder. But it is. Why? Because the love of things always comes above loving others. And when you have a culture that devalues their neighbor (and values things more than people), murder is concurrent with the culture.

2016

- The Loneliness of Pornography

Porno doesn’t do anything but teach men how to be wimps. A man would rather look at a photo than have a woman to call his own. Hey, how about this: rather than chasing pixels, why don’t you chase after a woman and win her heart? Porno takes the natural-born chivalry out of a man and replaces it with an ever-increasing (but never satisfied) lust. Men were born to win a woman’s heart; not to lust after photos of naked women who they will never meet. Porno screams loneliness. It is a private addiction, one that will destroy you a little bit each day. Porno is the face of loneliness as the viewer will never meet the women on the screen. Though you may look at these women’s bodies, you will never know them.

- First Look at Pornography

A boy’s first look at pornography should be: “Holy Poop! There’s women like this who will sell their bodies for some photographers to be published in magazines and lusted after by men who they will never meet? Wow! To think there are actually women out there who value themselves so little and value getting paid more than their own bodies is just crazy.” That should be a boys first response. But, sadly, because of man’s fallen nature, that isn’t his normal response. His response is one of excitement and secret knowledge, as if he has stumbled upon a treasure. But the treasure chest has a viper in it. Boys want more and more and eventually are consumed with the sexual imagery that it takes more and more devious and sinful images to even arouse them anymore. Boys have become a shell of their former selves. Those boys will never have any meaningful relationship as they view all women as sex objects. It is a sad, sick world that boys have to grow up in. The only hope is in godly men and women to raise up boys to know what to look at and what not to look at. The only hope for boys is the gospel. It is only in the gospel that boys can be free from their addiction.

- Relative View of Sex

Whenever you let the culture define what sex is, you are going to get a lot of disgusting answers. These answers will morph and evolve over time to become more and more disgusting (as culture sees fit). In other words, culture doesn’t know what sex is. They only know what they define it as (in that one moment). In another moment it can (and will) be something else. How can you live life defining sex like that? You’ll only be “right” in the moment. When you look back, it will be one long string of failures. How do you overcome this relative view of sex? You define sex as God defines it. He made it. You live life according to how He has defined sex to be. It is an absolute definition. It is a fulfilling and satisfying definition. Don’t let man tell you what sex is. Listen and obey God what He says sex is.

- Technology Tied to Sex

If you haven’t noticed how sexualized America is, you’ve been living in a cave. Sex drives everything—even our technology. It is a common fact that the reason why the superior BETA videocassettes never became the industry standard (like VHS did) is because the porno industry adopted the inferior VHS as it's choice. Where the porno-industry goes, so does the rest of the entertainment industry and the technology companies.

- Any sexual lifestyle that points you away from God would, by definition, be a sinful lifestyle.

- Industry of Lies

The porno industry lies to you. They say if you listen to them and follow their advice that your sex life will exponentially be more gratifying and fulfilling. That is a lie from the depths of hell. The truth is that if you listen to God and follow His advice on sex (i.e. one man, one woman marriage with no sexual deviancy) that your sex life will be so fulfilling. It will be more gratifying than anything porno has to offer. Porno has to offer excitement for a moment, but then the next thing has to up the ante. We are 70 years later since legalized pornography and we can see where we have landed: complete depravity of the human body. Men and women are simply seen as objects; not God's images.

- Gain From Not Lusting

Think how much you will gain on that day when you don't lust after women. Think of how proud God will be when He judges you and commends you for not lusting; the time you didn't turn your head; the time you didn't look at porno. The time you didn't have an evil thought. God knows all and will reward all. Seen and unseen. I'd rather receive God's rewards in the next life than any temporary rewards (i.e. sexual gratification) in this life. His ways are infinitely better than our ways. Sexuality, God's way, is satisfying. Sexuality any other way is never gratifying. I can't wait for that day when God reveals all the good decisions I made: when I didn't check out another woman, when I didn't lust, when I didn't imagine sexual immorality. Why? Because there are plenty other evil thoughts that I will be ashamed of. All my lustful thoughts will come to light someday—as will everyone else's. I would rather live holy in this life and fight sin and have something to show for on that day. "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.” (James 1:12)

- The Loss of Innocence

The Justice Department estimates that nine of 10 children between the ages of 8 and 16 have been exposed to pornography online, with the average age of exposure being 9. 32% of teens access pornography online intentionally. 12% of parents are aware of this activity. Pornography is ripping the innocence out of children and subjects them to a sexualized, sinful lifestyle. Children are being taught by the porn industry how to live, how to dress, how to act, how to please and be pleased. Pornography is a lie from the pit of hell that promises the world to children but only destroys them.

- Pornography Costs

Pornography isn't free. You think it only costs $5 to rent a porno? Wrong. It costs $5 plus your soul.

- Pornography From the Photographed Person's Angle

For people who think pornography is harmless entertainment, let's examine another angle to it. Just for the sake of argument, let's say that it never was harmless to the person using pornography (that's a false statement, but we will ignore it for the sake of argument). Let's look at the other side, then, the side that creates the pornography. Pornography from the person being photographed is being harmed because he/she is being used for money. The porn-star is a slave to money and a shell of a person who's dignity has been ripped away. Porn-stars are never unhurt by the industry they are in. They exist for the fulfillment of others. That is their only purpose. How sad. That is a miserable existence to know that the only reason you exist is to fulfill other's needs. What about their needs? Sacrificing one's dignity at the altar of "career" is a violation of human self-worth. No. Pornography harms the porn-stars and it harms the audience. Pornography is never harmless entertainment. It devalues humans to pieces of meat and it creates a deep desire in a heart that can never be satisfied. God made man in his image and pornography destroys that image.

- Money Drives It

A sexually driven culture is a controlled culture. A sexually-debased culture is an enslaved culture. America isn't free. It's enslaved by its own carnal desires. Sex is seen as a means to an end: namely personal pleasure and money. Yes, money. Money is the driving force of our sexualized culture. Sex is used to sell everything from car parts to toothpaste. The corporate business men who use sex to sell their products to the public are nothing but glorified pimps.

- Female Models Disrespect All Females

It's the women that pose for pornography that creates a disrespect of women. Men don't respect women because pornography has conditioned men not to respect them. Men have a sin nature. They don't respect women (if they listen to their sin nature). Pornography just throws more fuel on the fire of disrespect. Feminism tries to combat that with their sick philosophy. They would do better attacking the women that wear no clothing for "art" than attacking the "male chauvinistic pigs". The pigs are in their own camp, though. "She (the strange woman) also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men." (Proverbs 23:28)

- Victoria's Brothel

Have you walked around a mall lately and looked at the signage on Victoria's Secret? It looks like a brothel. Victoria's Secret proudly exposes women's bodies to the public. They use half-naked bodies to entice customers to spend their money. They actually, in my mind, seem desperate. Their signage is not exciting. They are so desperate for your wallet that they "have to" show breasts and half-naked bodies to entice customers into their store. They offer a world of sexual freedom, but instead all a woman gets is some lingerie. They make extravagant promises that if you wear their products that you will finally be fulfilled. No woman who wears their products will be fulfilled. It's such a joke that Victoria's Brothel is considered "classy" in this day and age. It's prostitution of women's bodies. How can American Christians fight against the sex slave trade and then go shopping at Victoria's Secret (which also exploits women's bodies)? It's hypocritical to do so. No Christian should ever shop at this porn-wear dealer.

- The Carniceria

If women treat themselves as a piece of meat (by how little they wear) it shouldn't be shocking when men treat women as pieces of meat. They are both wrong. Women aren't pieces of meat and they shouldn't be advertising themselves as such.

- Absolute Sexual Freedom Corrupts Absolutely

Absolute freedom corrupts absolutely. Freedom without restraint is called anarchy. Sexual freedom without restraint is called sexual anarchy. Examples of this anarchy include: sex before marriage, pornography, Hollywood, the sexualization of all entertainment, strip clubs, prostitution, sex-slave trade, molestation, adultery, and the list goes on and on. For a society to run correctly (and morally) there has to be restraints. Not everyone can do whatever they want. There is a thing called good and evil. Freedoms cannot be given to both good and evil people. Thomas Jefferson said that America could only work with religious people. Take the fear of God away from people and what absolute do they have to start with? Take the Bible and prayer out of public places and what do they base their lives on? They base their lives on their feelings from moment to moment. Sexual anarchy is just a slavery to one's own whims, desires and lusts. I can't wish that on my neighbor. I'm supposed to love my neighbor by pulling him back from the fire. I'm supposed to be the roadblock that says, "don't go this way". Christians are supposed to be serving God in this capacity by speaking out against the evils of sexual anarchy. Sexual sinners only see Christians as "taking away from them". Christians are taking away death and sin from them—hardly good things! God wants to take away sin and death from sexual sinners but they won't listen to Him!

- There's no such thing as free love. It always costs your soul. Free love is like free lunch: someone has to pay for it.

- PHD in Porn

Those who look at pornography are students of pornography. Some people study porno so much you would think they would have a PHD in porno. How sad to study something so depraved, so sinful and so worthless but never get to use your degree. Rather, the degree uses the student. Rather than the student consuming porno, porno consumes the student. The porn-god is a relentless god; an unforgiving god. You can study porno all you want; you can get your “degree” in it but porno, in the end, will leave you empty and dead inside. The conclusion of porno only leads to death.

2017

- Destroy Your Life 101

The Sexual Revolution was basically a crash course on how to destroy your life. It was a lesson in how to make an airplane out of duct tape and chewing gum. The year 1969 is looked at as the pillar of all things free. Unfortunately, that year is the year all things were lost. Things like patience, and relationships and commitment and honesty and trustworthiness. It was an experiment in futility. 50 years later, we still see the dead fruit it brings: divorced marriages, fatherless homes, abortion, the LGBT movement, AIDS, single mothers, poverty and more. The sexual revolution is a joke. It was a revolution insofar as much as if you were to take a knife, cut out your own eyes and then put sunglasses on. It was a joke like, “Hey, have you heard the one about the Sexual Revolution?” (that’s the joke and the punchline.) Except it’s not very funny. Broken hearts, souls and homes have been the result. It was a mass-sacrifice of peoples’ bodies to the god of lust, control and greed. But the god doesn’t pay back lightly. He has dealt the harshest of blows despite the huge sacrifice of people’s own sexuality. God designed sexuality to be built over decades within a marriage between one man and one woman. Much like a general contractor constructing a building, brick by brick. That kind of building can’t be built in the context of hook-ups and one-night stands. There is no value in a hookup, for neither party had to work much for that moment. If a dating couple works hard, over years, to build a foundation for marriage, they will reap the benefits. Why? Because they put their blood, sweat and tears into the relationship and that marriage ring is a victory ring. There are no shortcuts despite what 1969 tried to teach the world. Build a relationship; don't just take a body for a night. Love and sacrifice for the other; don't just be impatient and hookup. The more you put into a relationship the more you will reap good fruit. You only value what you work for. Will a one-night stand be looked back upon as something that took a lot of effort to accomplish, or little effort to accomplish? Will being flirtatious with the opposite sex ever build something of value, or is it just cheap, drive-thru feelings?

- The Sexual Revolution is a revolution of chains. It is a “new” way of being enslaved by your sin. The Sexual Revolution was just a sexual assault on society for the purpose of controlling society.

- Protect Intimacy At All Costs

To talk about sex in the most crude terms is disgustingly inhuman. How can one take the most intimate act between two human beings (a male and a female) and talk about it such common, profane terms? Even the overabundance of talking about sex turns it into some cheap act. It is not a cheap act! It is not common and profane. It is intimate and renewing and pure love in physical form. It is the communion of a husband and a wife. It is pure knowledge and sacrifice and intimacy. This culture has been on a collision course with anything but intimacy and love and sacrifice. What the world wants is cheap acts of orgasm; not a foundation of love. This is seen in Hollywood and the music industry and the media. Sex is treated as something that “can make us some money”. Rather than protecting the act of sexual intercourse for what it is, it is exploited for financial gain. It is sickening. Married couples must do all they can to protect their intimate acts behind closed doors. That means no pornography (as it cheapens the act), no masturbation (as it dismisses the communion of marriage), no media that takes away from God's design (as it infiltrates one's mind with the lies of the devil). Sexual intimacy among human beings must be protected by the Christians; because no one else will protect the godly heritage of it. The world is exploiting what goes on behind closed doors. Christians must be the heroes and protect its secrecy at all costs (for generations to come). If the world finally succeeds in creating a monopoly on the definition of sex, where will the next generation get the truth? It is the Christians that have the truth about the sex. Protect sex for the glory of God.

- Low-Cut Advertising

Why do women feel the need to wear low-cut shirts out in public? As a man, the first thing I want to do is look, because they are enticing me to lust. But, if I really think about it, I truly am disgusted by women showing the tops of their breasts to strangers (like me). Why? Because that beauty should only be shown to their husbands. I'm not their husband— why should I be seeing that? Women don't protect their breasts from strangers. Maybe that's the whole problem with this culture. Women don't value themselves to privatize their own bodies. They want to publicize their bodies like a whore.

- Any man who looks at pornography really doesn't love his woman. His fantasy world and pleasing himself is more important than giving himself over to his bride.

- Drab, Dark World

Pornography paints everything in grays. In other words, pornography makes life less exciting. Instead of excitement, it produces an absolute boredom with life. It saps the vitality of men and replaces it with a complete lifeless existence. Men find themselves thinking about immorality all the time, rather than the true beauty of the world around them. It's a fantasy world that doesn't exist. It's a haze that blinds you to everything around you. The devaluing of women is brought over into real life, as well, as women just don't seem beautiful anymore. Pornography rewires your brain to accept a lie and then call it "truth". It is "truth" that leads you to the precipice of hell, as you find no value in yourself, God, or anybody else. It's ironic that the very things you are supposed to find beauty in (and at one time even idolized) are the things that now have no value to you at all (i.e. women's bodies). If you find the devaluing of people a prison, stop looking at pornography. It will only lead you to hell. "For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit." (Proverbs 23:27)

- Wimps Wanted

Pornography creates wimpy men. It creates a cycle of irresponsible men because it gives no incentive for a relationship. In fact, pornography is the antithesis of a relationship. Pornography promises the satisfaction of sex, but it never does. The satisfaction was only by your lonely self. Pornography is a $60 billion business because of lonely men who don't want to work for a relationship. The pornography industry will take these lonely men's money and never give them a true relationship. It's unfortunate that many of these men's wives, if they respected their husbands more, would fight more to bring their husbands back. Unfortunately, their wives have just let go of their husbands into the black hole. Perhaps from their perspective all they see is a wimpy man. Perhaps they are right. Maybe they can't save themselves. Perhaps the wife, if she truly loved her husband, would pull him back out of the darkness so he wouldn't run to such filth.

- Forbidden Fruit and Forbidden Love

Adultery. Sexual immorality. LGBT. Pornography. These are all considered forbidden fruit by God. And, yet, in the moment, these things seem very attractive to people's flesh. And, just like Eve, whose desire consumed her, they consume their forbidden fruit until it destroys them. Men and women don't like the concept of something being "kept" from them. For something to be forbidden is the equivalent of saying "No!" Men and women don't like No. They don't like boundaries. There are two thoughts on what boundaries do: they either keep us something from something good or keep us from something bad. God sets up boundaries because He loves us—because things are bad on the other side. He put up the fence (the Law) to protect us from the dragon (pornography) on the otherside. "Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.” (James 1:13-15)

- Weightloss Ads

Weight-loss advertisements are usually sex-driven. Many advertisements will show a skinny lady holding her 4XL pants out from her waist, and smiling. How is this not a sexual proposition? The smiling lady proudly displays her stomach and hips to the world—something that should only be seen by her husband. Weight-loss is seen as the magic door to happiness to overweight people. Weight-loss is the key that will open up all happiness and –don’t miss it–sexual satisfaction for any woman. These images of women holding pants is not an innocent endeavor into cheesy marketing. No. It is a calculated marketing campaign. The message is loud and clear: Weight loss leads to sex (and happiness). What the advertisers won’t tell you is that there are millions of skinny women who are unsatisfied in their relationships and sex lives. Weight loss doesn’t save. Sex doesn’t save. Only Jesus brings true happiness.

- Titillating News

Before Yahoo or MSN webpages load up, you should turn your eyes away from their debauchery. This is what it means to serve the Lord. Every man knows that breasts and sex is shown explicitly as “cover stories” on these news channels. So why even be on the page – especially if you are just checking your email? There’s no point. Turn your eyes away from destruction. “Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.” (Proverbs 27:20)

- Pornography Wants Your Soul

Pornography is a siren that beckons to destroy your soul, though it never beckons explicitly with that intention. Pornographers know how to market themselves, “You deserve it”, “Relax a little bit”, “There’s nothing wrong with this”, “You’re not sinning against your wife”. It’s funny that they echo the exact same things that Satan says; no surprise, because pornographers work for the Prince of Darkness. Pornography will rob you of your family in the end. Is it worth it? It will rob you of your time, energy, money, thoughts, emotions and resources. In short, pornography will rob you of everything in your life, down to your very soul. It will leave you as a spiritual hobo. Is it worth it, for a few minutes of gratification? The Lord offers a better way. He says, "And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire: Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched." (Matthew 9:47-48). Hell is the final destination of pornography. Don't play with fire because you are going to get burned.

- Casual Sex Movement

The Casual Sex movement has destroyed billions of lives. Casual sex, by definition, has nothing to do with love. Casual sex is all about one thing: sex. The two parties could care less about any lifelong commitment with each other. They just want one thing. They don't care about any faithfulness to each other; just one thing. They only care about their particular recreation. They are kind of like sports partners: meeting up and then going their separate way. These whores and whoremongers (as God calls them) have taken the most intimate act that God created and turned it into a game. The very definition of "know" in the Bible was to make love (Genesis 4:1, 4:17, 4:25, 1 Samuel 1:19). People don't even know the person who they are "knowing". Sex becomes just another experience. But what good is the experience if you don't even know the person? You had an experience, but you were basically by yourself. Experience with a stranger really isn't something to strive for. And yet billions of people settle for the crumbs. Wanting to be known and loved is something all men and women want. So why do you settle for not being known and not knowing others? People have taken God's good gift of sex and have divorced it from the source of life. Sex, in its proper context, is not casual. It is passionate, faithful, loving, patient and powerful. People have turned passionate sex into something boring, godless and unsatisfying. These people think that the more boring sex that they have that it will eventually lead to passionate godly sex. But it never will. Without God's design, sex will never be passionate. God created sex to be experienced in a certain lifelong context. "And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness. . ." (Romans 1:28-29a)

- Selling and Buying Love

There is always a cost associated with "free" love. People who want to sleep around are not "getting", they are giving; giving of their very own souls. In other words, they are saying in effect, "My love is for sale". How much will you buy it for? Any person who sells their love is the same as a prostitute who sells her love. Love isn't a commodity to be sold and traded. If love is sold, then it isn't love. Love, by definition, is given freely with no strings attached. It isn't a service to buy and sell.

- Users Get Users

Those who live for sexual experiences also live to burn others. Having an experience is a very selfish goal (not a lofty one). And in the pursuance of that goal, one can't help but hurt others. The hook-up culture, free as it is, also freely hurts others. Users get users. Unfaithful people get unfaithful people. It shouldn't be shocking. Sex-shiesters get sex-sheisters. Is it any wonder why the hook-up culture isn't satisfying? Nothing lasts. This lifestyle leaves behind a broken trail of hearts and hurt people. This is the opposite of loving your neighbor as yourself.

2018

- Unfaithfulness and Bars

In a bar scenario, where alcohol is flowing, no is who they are. Some people say it makes people more honest; no, it doesn't. It just makes people play the fool more. How many marriages have been destroyed by someone who they met in a bar? People like to party in a bar and then they regret the next morning of what they did with some stranger (someone who they will never see again).

The people in bars are all playing a part; whether it's the alcohol talking or not, no one is real. It's a big charade and everyone in there is out to play everyone else. It's like a bunch of thieves seeing who can steal from the other thieves first.

- Rendering Men Ineffective

One of the effects of porn is to render men ineffective. Porn creates guilt and shame. Men feel the deep weight of this shame when they watch porn, and therefore become ineffective in doing good. Satan loves the tool of porn as he heaps guilt and shame upon men. Men are too busy getting more of their fill when they could be producing good works. And when they are "out in the real world" they are guilty for their secret private fantasies, thus rendering them useless for any good. For what kind of guilt-ridden sinner would want to do good to women? He sees women as commodities to use. Jesus Christ, though, breaks through this kind of sinner and reveals his deep dark, depressed heart and offers forgiveness. Jesus doesn't deny the chains; he acknowledges them and breaks them, thus setting men free.

- The Absence of Love

This culture has no faith in love. Look at their movies—murder and violence. Listen to their music—unfaithfulness and immorality. Read their books—salacious sin and godlessness. This culture has lost all faith in love. The thing is, this correlates to culture's loss of faith in Jesus. They don't believe in his person or ability. The funny thing is that Jesus is love. Is it any wonder why the world has no faith in love? Because they don't have faith in Jesus. They blaspheme his name, spit on his commandments and ridicule His Word. They, therefore, reap a loveless life. The ability to give and receive love is a gift from God. Mock the Maker of it and you will not receive His gifts either (which ironically leads to more mocking). The fact is, all loves are found in Christ: love of God, love of self, love of your neighbor, love of nature. Take away love of God and you lose all loves. It's not necessarily a punishment, it's just how God works. He can't go against His nature. And He created this world (and all its loves) in accordance with His nature.

- Lost Souls

The Sexual Revolution was a revolution to a person's soul (not in a good way). How that "new" person acted sexually is what defined his "new" family, friends, neighbors, parents, etc. How they lived would also define their future family, friends, neighbors. The Sexual Revolution redefined everything (even if it didn't seem to go past an individual). The sin of one person affected everyone around him. The "revolution" of one sexually deviant individual affected the culture and generations to come.

- Not Enough Sex?

America is a perverted nation. Americans listen to music about sex, watch movies about sex, read magazines and books about sex. They talk about sex and they buy things at sex shops. They live out their sordid sexual fantasies. Consider a few facts: Every second, 30,000 people are viewing pornography. 12% of all websites are pornographic (over 24 million sites). 35% of all internet downloads are pornographic. 25% of all search engine requests are pornography related. Over 200,000 Americans are classified as pornography addicts (defined as spending more than 11 hours a week viewing it). It would almost seem like Americans are deprived of sex to want sex this much. But they aren't! They are completely surrounded by sex everywhere they look, feel, touch, hear and smell! So why so much sex? They aren't starving for it— that's for sure! It is because sex is an idol to Americans. It is a pleasure-seeking culture. They lust after pleasure. they worship pleasure. They seek it in their own way apart from God. See, God isn't against pleasure (He created sex), but He created it to be enjoyed a certain way (a covenantal one man, one woman marriage). Americans have taken that gift and have ditched the Gift-Giver's instructions on how/when/who. They want to enjoy the gift by their own rules. And that has been disastrous to American culture. Because sex has become less satisfying, Americans have had to supplement their lack of pleasure with just more. All entertainment and social media, and everything imaginable, and yet, the pleasure of sex still eludes Americans. More doesn't make it better. It isn't quantity;

it's quality. Sex, misused, has destroyed America. And America has sought to evangelize the world in its filth. Why do women listen to the sexual music that devalues women? Because they just want some sort of pleasure or feeling of being wanted. Why do men watch porno? Because they aren't loved by any woman. Men and women are falling apart at the seams, just trying to feel valued in themselves, to feel pleasure. But they are going about it the wrong way. They are destroying the few relationships they do have in sacrifice to this god of sex. Sex without God destroys people. Unfortunately, that is not the message of Hollywood and Vegas and Cosmopolitan. But it is true. These outlets purport to be a cure to loneliness; they don't even make a good bandage. All sexual media is in fact the virus; not the cure. God is the only cure to Americas' sex addiction.

- Lust Hurts God, Others and Yourself

Lust hurts others. You can think that lust is your own private little sin, but it is not. All sin hurts others. One of the people it hurts, is God. Your sin separates you from God, who wants to know you. You are also devaluing His name by devaluing a fellow human being who is made in His image. The other person you are hurting is the person herself. That woman is valuable beyond and above her body; to reduce her to her body is to reduce her whole person. The other person that you hurt is yourself. You don't care enough about yourself to think on anything else. You are not just a body to be satisfied. You are also a human made in God's image. Don't reduce yourself to a body that needs to be fulfilled. Lust starts in the heart and pours out into how you treat women. If you stop it in your own heart, you will love God, love others and love yourself. If you don't, lust will pour out into the world, (like all the other men do) and lead to sexual perversions, adultery, pornography, sex-trafficking, strip clubs, brothels, etc. Lust takes you to the end of yourself, as you give yourself over to this god. Lust, once given over to it, will take everything you are. You will be reduced to a shell of a man, not valuing God, not valuing women and not valuing yourself. Lust is a brutal god; don't serve it. Serve the true God and fight lust in your heart. "For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.” (1 John 2:16)

- Public Bodies

Sleazy men know that women who don't cover their bodies in clothing are open to new men. They know that they aren't faithful. But the man doesn't care as long as he can get in on her unfaithfulness. Unfaithfulness never gains. It only hurts the people involved and then spreads out to family, friends, neighbors until the whole country is unfaithful. Unfaithfulness in America is at an all-time high. And the things that people are faithful to (NFL, Netflix series, Starbucks, electric vehicles, diets, health, exercise) can never satisfy them. It's a pathetic faithfulness to pathetic idols.

- Destroying Innocence

Everyday, there are 116,000 searches for “child pornography”. There is a sick market for this audience. Why do pornographers want to target children? It is because the pornographers' innocence has been lost, so they seek to make children lose their innocence as well. They have no innocence left in them, and in fact, hate the concept of innocence, that they seek to eradicate it in others so that innocence is a foreign concept on the earth. Innocence is ridiculed, hated and despised by pornographers because it reminds them of something that they once had, something that they want but can never regain. It also reminds them of a holy, innocent God that they will have to answer to someday. Innocence is a picture of God whether it is found in children or any other human being; and the hatred of innocence shows the true origin of where it is coming from: Satan himself.

- No ROI

Women who expose their bodies to the world seek a return on investment (ROI). They aren't just showing their bodies to the world for no reason. They want material gain, relationship gain, status gain, etc. They want a happier life, just like anyone. But they are going about it the wrong way. They are exposing their material body that will only attract attract men who are materialistically-minded (bodily and carnally). This, unfortunately, doesn't lead to happiness. Their sacrifice is in vain. Exposing oneself is a sign of weakness and some men prey on that kind of weakness. They go along with that woman's little game of tease, just as long as they get what they want in the end. Unfortunately, a woman who doesn't change her exposed body strategy, will see decades of broken relationships. A long string of failed relationships or one-night stands isn't a sign of success; it's a sign of failure, as her heart has been ripped to a million pieces. A woman's body was never meant to be passed around to hundreds of men. It was meant to be treasured by that one man— her husband—solely for life.

- Valued Only For No Clothes On

Some men only see value in women with no clothes on them; they see no value if a woman is wearing clothes. That is how twisted and sick pornography has turned men's minds into. The porno industry has put such a value on sex that men have lost touch of the value of women in and of themselves. For example, women are made in the image of God; they aren't just sex objects to satisfy your every sexual desire. They are nurturers and loving creatures that make homes full of love. They are innately qualified to teach children right from wrong and raise up the next generation of leaders. They are designed to serve others with compassion. They are beautifully designed creatures – beauty that transcends just the sexual. Don't let pornography destroy men's souls. It destroys the value of women in men's minds and in the meantime destroys men's souls.

- Drug Pushers and Actors

To make porn, it takes a lot of drug addiction. It is a common thread among porn stars the drug abuse and alcoholism that goes along with creating dirty pornography. It takes a lot of numbing and mind-numbing drugs (like methamphetamines) to compensate for their acting out a sex scene. That should tell us something about the pornography. If it takes a girl doing speed and PCP to complete a sex scene, there is something majorly wrong with her career (and her soul). Every man and woman has a conscience. No amount of money can sear your conscience completely. There is always a little voice inside you saying, “What you’re doing isn’t right”. A girl can choose to ignore her own conscience to her own damnation or she can say, “This isn’t right”, and walk out. God can and does save girls out of the porno industry all the time. But there are always more debased, crushed, lonely and poverty-stricken women in line to fill their vacant roles. As Christians, we must tell women that they bear the image of God and are not for sale. Their actions should glorify God and any sexual activity should be reserved for marriage alone. Girls don’t know these absolutes and, instead, are being influenced by society’s ever-loosening of morals (the kind of morality that turns sex into a game and into a paycheck). There is a God and He designed sex not for entertainment, but for children and marriage.

• What It Takes To Make Child Pornography

Child pornography isn’t created in a vacuum. It takes an army of photographers, directors, producers, set designers, lighting, cameramen, rigging, interior designers, editors, technicians, transportation, caterers, kidnappers, coaches, abusers, managers, molesters, billing, accounts receivable, security, website designers, IT, marketing and more to produce this filth. A person who looks at this vile material is paying each of these people’s wages. Child pornography wouldn’t exist if there was no demand for it. It stops at the viewer. If there was no demand, then the pornographers could publish all they want, and there would be crickets in the audience. But because of the vile affections and lusts of sinful men and women, well, pornographers have a large customer base to please. The porno industry destroys billions of children a year so that billions of adults can destroy their souls. It is a sickening thing to think that if a person didn’t search for certain keywords on their internet, that billions of children could be free. But they won’t be. Because of sickening people who want to lust after this filth. How could anyone involved in this industry go home to their children, knowing they have destroyed someone else’s son or daughter? The porn industry would fall apart if it wasn’t catered to by all these different careers. Hell is the end result of people who have caused hell on earth for these children. God, have mercy on these poor children and judge all the people behind the industry, especially the end-users who feed the army of pornographers.

- Men's Christian Conferences Are Laughable

Whenever there is a Promise Keeper's conference in town, the local hotels love it. Why? Because it is a common fact that the pornography watching audience in the hotel rooms skyrockets. More porno equals more money for hotels whenever a men's Christian conference is in town. This is sickening. The world is excited because of Christian men's lack of fidelity towards God or their wives. They worship their lusts more than God. This is what the world sees and they happy to play along. It is unfortunate that so many men that name the name of Christ is blaspheming His character by watching porno. Whenever I see a group of men worshiping God (with full outstretched arms, passion on their faces) I just want to laugh. Maybe it's the cynic in me, but I know for a fact that half of those men are watching porno at home (those are the statistics). The hypocrisy is ridiculous and their feigning of worship is ridiculous. It's a laughable scene of a group of men raising their hands in praise when it isn't real. God sees right through their hypocrisy. Do they think He doesn't? Who are they trying to impress? The world? (The world isn't impressed but they like their hotel porno watching). God isn't pleased. Porno is clearly men's god; not the Lord. The numbers show it. There should be zero porno being watched when a men's Christian conference is in town. That should be Christians' witness to the world. In theory, hotels should hate when Christians book all the rooms (because of the lack of porno funds they would receive). Unfortunately, that is just the theory. Today, the hotels (and the world) see the Christians' hypocrisy. They see that they are just as sinful as the rest of mankind. If the Christians have no faithfulness to God, why should anyone else? The hotels get the same porno kickbacks if it is a car show, a tech show, any show, including Christian men's conferences. That is sickening. Christians should be holy in the sight of God and man. "I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me." (Proverbs 101:3)

- Looking For Beauty

If you get to the heart of why people look at pornography, they are in fact looking for beauty. They are looking for something real and true. They perhaps are even looking for love and to be loved. All of these virtues are not wrong in and of themselves, but these people are going about it a godless way. Porno is the opposite of love, truth and beauty. It is the corruption of those things. It is a deception by Satan to think that porno will give you a glimpse of true beauty. Beauty and Truth were created by God. Satan twists beauty and truth to lure people in and then he kills them. “For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her. Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.” ( Proverbs 7:26-27)

- Assembly Line Whores

The Sexual Revolution was simply a machine for creating whores. It's nothing to be proud of if someone claims to be the result of the hippie generation. The Sexual Revolution created whores and whoremongers. It threw off restraint and went in search of the great unknown. Well, the whores and whoremongers are still trying to find the meaning of life. It turns out that their parents actually knew what they were talking about (“save your body for marriage”, “honor God with your body”, etc.) The Hippies are in denial but their “revolution” is one of the great epic fails of History. They thought they could throw off all restraint, all law, all morals, decency and tradition without consequences. The consequences, unfortunately are still happening today. One of the reasons today's society is suffering is because of the Sexual Revolution. Again, the hippie whoremongers would never admit that today's divorce rate, fatherless homes, adultery, LGBTism, poverty, social injustice and other problems of their so-called revolution. But they are. The Summer of Hate wasn't done in a vacuum. It has spread its filth (and its legs) down through the generations. And those generations follow suit and ramp up the sin even more. It is sad and disheartening to think that all America must to do is repent and she could get back on track. “For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. (Ephesians 5:5)

- Powerful, Not Casual

The world preaches a gospel that sex is a “casual” sport with no boundaries, but that is a lie. See, sexual intercourse isn’t casual. Giving your whole body, soul, heart and mind to someone isn’t casual. Sexual intercourse is about intimacy—not casual “whateverness”. There are two ways to look at sexual intimacy: it’s either the most intimate act a human can have or it’s the most useless. Important vs casual. Building the foundation or scattering sand on the beach. The giving of yourself or taking from someone else. Sexual intercourse is beautiful when kept within God’s design. It is horrible when it is outside His boundaries.

- Lovemaking in a Marriage

It’s amazing that once you eliminate pornography and masturbation from a marriage how much actual lovemaking a husband and wife do. Husbands and wives were meant to make love. A lot. That’s where children come from. Once you eliminate all outside influences, and a man and woman are faithful to each other, a lot of sexual intercourse will commence. This is how God designed it and it is good. Husbands and wives that follow God don’t need any ideas from man, for He will bless them. “Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.” (Hebrews 13:4)

- Nation of Whores

A nation of whores benefits whores as they are free to live a sexually licentious life. A nation of whores also benefits whoremongers, adulterers, molesters and rapists. Free sex and abortion creates a nation of whores and all the evils that comes along with it. The abortion industry has helped create a culture of STDs, infidelity and broken homes. Whores and whoremongers will all be judged by God someday. “For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.” (Revelation 22:15 )

- No Benefits

Pornography hurts people. That’s why it all must be destroyed.

There is not a single person in history that has ever benefited from pornography. It only harms. It only destroys. It reduces women to whores and men to lust filled cowards. A pornographic picture is created to bring out lust in someone's heart; to lust after it. Pornography lights a fire in a person's desire for something that he or she would not have. In other words, you are viewing or experiencing something that you should not have outside marriage (and in most cases you should not be experiencing at all, inside or outside marriage). It is forbidden viewing, forbidden experience and forbidden fruit. For some, the fact that porn is forbidden makes it all the more enticing (i.e. to go after something illegal). Let's think about why it's not allowed. The flame of passion was created to be only experienced in the context of a one man-one woman marriage. Take a flame that is meant to warm a house and then bring it to a dry forest and it becomes a wildfire, burning all in its path. A flame can create warmth, love, comfort or it can produce the opposite of those things—an uncontrollable fire that consumes all. Many have died in its wake, all the while thinking it was something they could control and "keep to themselves". That flame, outside of a loving marriage, is uncontrollable. It burns homes and families to the ground. And it all starts with one little flame, one pornographic picture that you look at a little too long. A wildfire, as many know, does not stop until all is consumed. That is lust. It will not stop until the viewer is dead. "For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life. Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned? Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned? So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent." (Proverbs 6:26-29)

- Sexy Girl Industry

Imagine a young teenage girl who is trying to get her acting career going. One day, her agent offers her a part in a music video. She accepts. Later that week, during filming, the producer asks her to wear a skimpy outfit and she is paid a very large sum. A week later, another project is brought to her by her talent agent— a small part in a movie. This part requires a partially nude scene.

Money is shoved in her face by the producer. She thinks about it and she does it. Now, continue this scenario down for a few years. Sex scenes, pornography shots, sleazy music videos— she does it all. She becomes accustomed to the money. The money seared her conscience to get her started in this sick business and the money is the continuing bait that lures her through each sick project. This young girl, once unknowingly naive about the entertainment industry, was huckstered into it by men. She told herself that she needed to be free and make money and be famous. She got all those things, but at the expense of her own soul. Powerful men still abuse women. And women fall for it. That is the saddest part of all. You know the freest women are the ones who would have never bought the lies? You know money isn't everything? You know that being famous isn't worth the cost of your own soul? This story has been played out millions of times in the entertainment industry. Men seem to always win and women seem to always lose. Women will continue to keep losing until they realize their infinite value in the sight of God.

- Not-Real Girls

There are plenty of advertisements and billboards for “fantasy showgirls” and “fantasy bars”. What is a fantasy? A fantasy is defined as something not real. In other words, what these strip bars are offering is something that is not real. Some proponents of strip bars would say that they are just “giving men what they want: their dreams.” I would argue that they are giving men something that is superficial, not real and fake. A man looking at a stranger's naked body is a fake relationship. A woman was never meant to take her clothes off for strangers; only for her husband. It is a “fantasy” because it isn't supposed to happen. It is a “fantasy” because people think they can break God's Law and get away with it. There is nothing real that comes out of these strip bars. Men aren't more loved when they walk out and neither are the strippers. The only real thing is the guilt and shame and damnation men and women reap on themselves.

- Strip Bars

There are two types of people in a strip bar: lonely men and lonely women. The lonely women take their clothes off for the lonely men and at the end of the night, both parties are still lonely. This scenario could be stated a different way: inside a strip bar are two type of people: unloved men and unloved women. The unloved men feel they want some attention and the unloved women feel like they want attention. One gives up cash and conscience; the other gives up her clothes and conscience. It is a sad state of affairs for men and women to destroy their soul just to get some attention; just to feel “loved” for a second. At the end of the night, both parties are still unloved. What did those parties do but just entertain each other? The man goes home and is still unloved. The woman goes home and she is still unloved. The fact that they are unloved is what brought these two people together, but what good did it do? Unloved people don’t know how to love others. They are selfish, sinful people only using others for their own gain. (Probably because that’s all they’ve known in life as well). Strip bars will never satisfy anyone. They will never save anyone from a lonely life. They only perpetuate it and leave both parties with broken souls.

- Defenders of Porn

Anyone defending porn-watching is watching it. They defend it to hide their own shame. They have to say it is OK or else they would have to say they are sinning. They have to make God a liar rather than themselves. They have to call good evil and evil good. Pornography destroys marriages, consciences, souls and lives. How is that a positive experience? Look at the fruit of pornography. Do you think these destroyed lives just happened, unrelated to the lust of pornography? Give me a break. All these guilty people are experiencing something that they shouldn’t be. They should be happy and joyful but instead they are miserable. Those negative feelings are wrong according to porn supporters. God’s Word says differently. I think the guilt is real and God’s opinion of porn (lust) is real. “Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!” (Isaiah 5:20)

- High View of Sex

Christians have a high view of sex, whereas the world has a low view of it. What does that mean. Well, it means that the world thinks that sex can be done by anyone at any age, anyway they want with whomever, of any age, any way they want. Christians don't believe that. They believe there are limits to sex. Limits by age and actions and only between male and female. Sex is sacred, only to be done in a marriage setting. Sex is holy and created by God, who also is holy. Our actions in sex should reflect His holiness and glory as 1 Peter 1:16b says, "Be ye holy; for I am holy." To open up sex to just anyone and multiple partners is to cheapen it. That is what the world holds to: a low view of sex where there is nothing special to it or any limits by which it may be done. Which view do you hold to? A biblical/high view of sex or a worldly/low view of sex? Is it just casual; no big deal or is it sacred and holy? Is sex an anytime/anywhere/anybody/anything kind of thing? Or is it a holy act designed by God to build marriages and glorify God? If sex isn't rooted in God then it isn't needed. If it isn't rooted in love it is useless. Just look at today's society; it's the low view of sex that has the world destroyed right now: LGBTs, porno, abortion, adultery, divorce, hookup culture, etc. Sex, divorced from God, makes it just an emotionless mating act. Sex, without love, makes humans just like the animals. Animals don't love; they mate. Love is rooted in God and without God (who is the incarnation of Love) there is no sex that means anything. A futile entertainment, short-term view of sex is what the world treats sex as.

- Porno For the Ears

Most modern "love" songs are simply porno for the ears. Today's music describes people fornicating and using others solely for sexual pleasure. If a culture listens to "love" songs like this (or rap songs like this), is it any wonder why the culture seeks out this same kind of "pleasure"? The music industry sells their music by the use of sex, but they never sell their music by the consequences of their immoral sexual actions: divorce, loneliness, depression, guilt, damnation from God.

- A Lonely Culture

The rise of porn is the sign of a very lonely culture. It is the mark of a society that is deprived of real, true love. It is a culture willed with the escapism of sex divorced from any real love.

- Slow, Painful Death

If you keep pornography in your house, then you might as well take TNT to it and blow up your home. Because that is what you are doing to your own soul and your spouse's and children's souls. Pornography takes all that is good in the world and destroys it. Consider the fact that pornography use increases marital infidelity by more than 300%. Marriages need pornography like it needs a noose. Spouses need pornography like they need a bullet to the head. Children need pornography like a knife in the back. Pornography is the definition of death; a slow, painful death for that person's innocence and their family's innocence. Did you realize that 40% of "sex addicts" lose their spouses? 58% porn addicts suffer considerable financial losses and 33% lose their jobs. It is a horrific, agonizing death as a person's conscience is slowly suffocated by the pillow of pornography. Or, imagine someone being buried alive. That is a soul's outcome when it continually watches sexual filth. Turn from all porn or it will cost your soul. "To deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words; Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God. For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead. None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life." (Proverbs 2:16-19)

- Our Children Are At Risk

Sex slavery is another evil that is here to attack this world (and our children). Along with the LGBT movement and abortion, children again are being resigned to bodies. Sex slavery reduces people to flesh and bone. Children aren't appreciated for their precious soul, heart, mind and being made in God's image. Satan loves enslaving people by sex slavery. He wins every time a child (made in His image) is controlled, raped, molested and abused. Satan can't get at the Almighty, so He is here to destroy His image. It is a sick thing to read about children enslaved for other's sick pleasures.

Children's innocence is ripped away for a piece of bread. How will this evil end? Only by the church. The Church must stand up and stop this worldwide evil. Consider this: 30-40million Chinese men are driving the sex slave trade. Why? Because sex-selective abortions took all the females out of their country. They will never marry. They will never have children. They can only "entertain" themselves with prostitutes and slaves. The demand for fresh meat is there. The demand is already here in America, too. The entertainment industry has made sure of that. Our children are at risk. Who will protect them? How will the Church stop this evil?

- Lewdmerica

When people aren't committing lewd acts they are watching them. Consider the fact that every 30 minutes, a porn film is made in America. America is a lewd culture, devoid of innocence, justice, righteousness and holiness. They love their filth. They love their sin. They make art in their image. Their art/music/movies is a reflection of who Americans are. America deserves to be judged by God for their lewd acts.

- Unhappy and Free

Rarely will you find a free woman who is happy. And what I mean by "free" is sexually free. Women who are in "open relationships" and not committed to any man are rarely happy. You can see it on their faces that their lifestyle isn't what it is cracked up to be. A bunch of segregated, sexual encounters does not equal happiness. These women are lonely. Their unhappiness is the fruit of a sexually free and deviant lifestyle. Their sexual freedom has become sexual tyranny.

- Target Whoredom

Has anyone ever considered the problem of rape in this society as, say, Target. That's right. Target, the retail store. Go into any Target, as I was today to pick up a prescription, and you are greeted with sexual imagery right away: jeans on women's' butts, lingerie in the aisles, women with just their undergarments in large posters. Then, if you were to continue walking past the makeup section, sexualized women are on big end-caps, alluring all walker-bys with their eyes, hair, lips and bodies. And, when it is time to check out, you have women with hardly any clothing on the covers of many a magazine. And the media has the audacity to ask, “Why are there so many sexual assaults against women?” Are they serious? They bombard men and boys with sexual imagery of women all day long and they expect them to just take it and not take action? Now, I’m not condoning rape by any means (nor am I negating personal responsibility), but the visual culture we live in needs to take responsibility! I don’t want my sons looking at this pornographic imagery going into a Target! I turn my head away when I see that filth in all their halftone glory. How many men and boys do not turn away? Target (and other stores like it) are responsible for rape, sexual assault and the molestation of young women. They like to say that their imagery isn’t “that bad”. Well, it isn’t good either. And the fruit of that imagery can be seen in the culture of sex we live in. “Oh, it’s good for business”. No amount of money is worth having America’s daughters raped and killed for corporations to make a buck. Ask any woman, “How does it feel to shop at a store that treats women as commodities for sale?” Most women wouldn’t even know how to answer, because they don’t understand their own value. Most women are fine being defined as sluts for the public. Most women think that advertising is attractive and that they want to “be like that”. And that “there’s nothing wrong with it”. Well, there is a lot wrong with it. Everything I write or talk to people about is about showing people that they are made in God’s image and that image needs to be protected and respected. Unfortunately, stores like Target don’t care about women’s design, purpose and image from God; they just want their breasts and bodies in people’s faces to make a buck. This is the sign of a sick culture of death. The news stories of rape and murder and sex trafficking are the result of stores like Target’s advertising products.

2019

- Commitment Deserves Milestones

Those in “open” relationships are not committed to anyone.

Because of their lack of commitment, they also have no milestones to celebrate. An anniversary date to a married couple is a very important date. It is another milestone—a birthday of their marriage. Unmarried people have no such milestone. When they started in a relationship and continued in it is one globular gray area. No dates or items. No facts and figures. It is a seamless, continuous and never sure relationship. As quickly as it started is as quickly as it can dissipate. Marriage between two loving people is quite the opposite. There are dates and times. There is commitment. There is the adventure of growing up together. There is the experience of one spouse for life to have all your adventures with.

- Cheaters Cheat

Happiness. That is the reason people want “free sex”. Happiness is why they ridicule being faithfulness to a spouse. Free relationships are a cheater’s paradise. There is no shortcut to happiness. It takes hard work, dedication, faith, love and grace. The culture doesn’t understand that as they only want their thrills in the moment, all the while leaving a wake of broken hearts behind them. The love of being untrue and deceptive has produced this culture of broken marriages, broken families and broken relationships.

- Prostituting Themselves

A prostitute is a woman who has given her body to others for something other than love. It doesn’t have to be riches. It can be materialism, adventure, escape, vengeance, etc. A woman who gives her body over to others, sexually, is a prostitute if love is not the reason. Women can use their bodies as a bartering tool to get something down the line. They can treat their own bodies as commodities. Is it any wonder why Hollywood and the entertainment industry also treats women as commodities? Women are made in God’s image. Their beauty was never meant to be sold to make a living or take things from others. Prostitutes look at their sexuality as an investment strategy: put in a little and gain much more in the end. What they don’t realize is that they are destroying their own souls in the process. They become bitter and dead inside because their promised dreams of happiness are never attained by their immoral acts. Such sacrifice never produces the goals they had in mind. God's Word provides the means by which women should use their beauty and their bodies.

- All the Good Ones are Taken

Fornicating women often lament about men that "all the good ones are taken". Yes, that is true. All the good ones are taken. All the fornicating/lying/cheating ones are all that's left. That goes for the fornicating woman who thinks that she is a "good person" and just wants a "good man". Baloney. She isn't a good person and doesn't deserve a good man. All the good men saw her and ran for the hills.

- Destroyer of Worlds

Pornography takes away everything beautiful, innocent, mysterious, and loving in the world. It takes away the wonder. It takes away the excitement of a loving, tender, self-sacrificing relationship and replaces it with a vast darkness and loneliness. This is what the culture strives for. Instead of escaping their darkness they only get more. Instead of escaping their lonely lives, they only get more loneliness.

- Nothing Else But Sex?

If you have to have sex early on in a new relationship, there is something seriously wrong. See, getting to know someone means you are getting to talk about everything and experience everything together. Sex should be nowhere in that equation. Discovering the world, food, art, parks, nature, shopping, family, parties, dinners, lunches, cooking, creativity, writing, poetry— sex shouldn't even be part of the equation at this point. Two souls should be wanting to know their likes and dislikes, their heritage, their thoughts and opinions. To go straight into sexual intercourse on the third date (or before) is to pull the trigger on something that never should have happened that early. Once that happens, the two souls are now one. And they know absolutely nothing important about the other. Oh, they have copulated like farm animals; they don't know anything relevant to the other person. And, to think this is what society pushes for (to not know the other person) is sickening. Society wants easy sex; not a relationship. They want hate; not love. They want copulation; not making love. On the other hand, to wait for sex until marriage vows are completed is God's perfect plan for two souls.

- Doing Her Own Thing

No man wants a rebellious woman as a wife. Rebellion and relationship are contradictory terms. A woman who wants to "do her own thing" and "be free" is not compatible with a loving, husband-wife relationship. No man wants a wife like this. Freedom, by definition, is contradictory to love found in a relationship. A relationship must bend to the others' needs; not assert one's autonomy. This is how God made love; two people coming together, giving up their freedom, to love one another.

- Free Love

Free love, unfortunately, is about the hatred of fidelity. It is just for isolated moments of "intimacy" with strangers. Whereas true intimacy is a result of a man and woman who truly know each other. Intimacy is a result of love; not a first cause. "Free love" always results in a dead heart for someone. Why? Because there is no relationship there. No commitment. No faithfulness. No fidelity. What all these qualities have in common (commitment, faithfulness, truthfulness, patience, relationship, fidelity) is that they are all qualities of God. To dismiss those qualities in others and in yourself is to dismiss God's design for us as people. The free love people don't just dismiss God's ideas of faithfulness; they hate those ideas. Their ways lead to death (death of one's heart, soul, mind and strength and physical death). God's ways lead to life: a living, breathing, growing, life-long relationship of faithful love with understanding and intimacy with your spouse. The alternatives offer none of those things. You choose.

- Gotta Catch 'Em All

Those who want to be on the search for love are really on the search for heartache. Rather than finding love in new relationships, hurt, pain and loss are found. Gotta catch all the sin and hurt you can. That wasn't the original intention of one's journey to finding love, but that is what it ends up being. Love without commitment is only lust. Lust cannot be the foundation of any relationship. That relationship will only hurt you. You cannot be joined to an uncommitted person and then not burn you.

- Objectified Women

Women who support pornography are supporting the demise of their own sex. Porn turns women into objects. Once objects, they can be abused, sold and traded for. Pornography today is about the abusing and doing violence towards women. The consumption of porno isn't "harmless fun" as some would call it. Porno is precise, calculated violence towards women. It actually is designed to destroy women; not just their bodies but their spirits. Any woman who doesn't care that this kind of entertainment exists is destroying other females. As opposed to the world's opinion of women, the Bible says Women are made in the image of God and are to be treated as such. Men who watch porno will act out their viewings and will physically abuse the women in their lives. Porno creates more abusers. Christianity lifts women out of the objective and into the glorious design God has made for them. Those who are for pornography are actually against Christianity. They are two opposing forces. I find it interesting that opponents to Christianity will say that that the Christian religion treats women as objects when it is actually they (and those who value porn) who turn women into objects. "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them." (Genesis 1:27 )

- American Women

American women will collectively be judged by how they dressed and lured men to lust. American men will be collectively judged by how they lusted after women. See, America doesn't exist in some sort of vacuum. America is made up of a peculiar kind of people. In the Old Testament, Israel was judged collectively (as well as individually). America thinks judgment is only on individuals rather than the whole group. But that isn't true. God judges as groups and individuals. America would do well to start loving their neighbor as themselves and valuing all people.

- Irresponsible and Free

Having sex outside of marriage is irresponsible because a child will, most likely, be the result. Raising a child is not an easy task. Raising a child is even more difficult as a single person. Why would anyone believe in the lie of “free sex” if it could lead to the responsible parenting scenario? People must be responsible with their bodies and their feelings of love. But free sex adherents don’t want to be responsible (which leads to the abandoning of children to foster care or the murdering of children in the womb).

- Free Porn?

There is no such thing as “free” porn. It always costs your soul. People who watch porn online (that doesn’t cost anything) are still paying a price with their very soul, each time they watch it. Besides that price, they are also paying the price of their heart and brain long after those images have been played. Porn always costs and the price is a person’s soul. Sexuality was not meant to be enjoyed outside of a marriage context. Porn is not a very forgiving idol. It takes no prisoners.

- Devouring Families

Pornography is destroying teenagers, which in turn, are destroying families. Porn is a devourer of families as it pits good parents against evil teenagers. It doesn’t pit bad parents against evil teenagers because they are all just watching the same filth. But for the parents who care about their children’s addiction to pornography, it can tear a family apart. That is one of the consequences that the porn industry doesn’t care about. They don’t care what families are destroyed just as long as they get their money. The porn industry is as anti-American as it is anti-family.

- Fantasyland Doesn’t Live Up To Reality

Pornography makes people miss the beauty right in front of them. Pornography brainwashes people into thinking that other people are just there for their sexual enjoyment. But people aren’t there for “your” enjoyment. They are made in the image of God. Pornography doesn’t care about demeaning God’s creation of man and woman. Porn addicts miss the beauty in men and women that is right in front of them. They want to retreat to their own little fantasy land where people are just bodies to satisfy “you”.

- Women don't want sex all day long. And, actually, men don't either. The sex all day long fantasy that porno portrays is simply unrealistic and unimaginative.

- Women's Dignity vs Porn

If you are for women's rights, you would be against pornography. There is nothing more degrading than a woman selling her body to film pornography. Women weren't designed to be whores for hire. They are made in God's image. Porn wants all women (on and off the screen) to be bodies for hire. Women's rights and women's dignity and God's Word are all opposed to that kind of thinking.

- Yahoo's Breasts

If you click on the Yahoo homepage, you're going to see women's breasts. There is no doubt about that. If you visit MSN, you're going to see half-naked women. If you go on Facebook, you're going to see fornication and pornography. This is the world we live in. Christians have no business on these sites. These companies know that if they flash an actress in a swimsuit or lingerie or revealing dress that audiences will inevitably look and stay longer. That is what these companies desire. They use whores to attract viewers to stay longer. The whore in the swimsuit is just the bait for the ads. The lingerie model is just the hook for you to create a user profile on. Don't fall for it. When you click out of Yahoo Mail, for instance, you know breasts and sexual imagery are going to be shown, so shut it down before it even gets in your head; so it doesn't even have a chance.

- The Quicksand Revolution

The Sexual Revolution is a failed experiment. 60 years of failure and yet society still keeps trying to put Band-Aids and crutches on this corpse. The Revolution is dead. It is time to revolutionize society back to Christian principles that actually worked. The Sexual Revolution has not and will not make happier people. The STDs since the revolution have gone from a handful to over 25 different classes. Is this progress? The divorce rate has skyrocketed. 65 million babies in the dumpster. Marriages have been destroyed. And, the homosexuals have gained the ascendancy. God's design has been mocked in our culture and Satan has been sacrificed to instead, by the worship of fornication. This god of sex must be destroyed, as he is a pretender to God's throne and must be dethroned. These seekers of pleasure have run out of pleasure. The revolution is bankrupt. No good fruit has come of it. It has only reaped more unfaithfulness, dishonesty, corruptness and murder that has spilled into other areas like business, politics, media and the arts. It is a laughable revolution. It has promised so much and has left people wanting for more. 60 years later, people are still starving for some satisfaction, some purpose in life. They have lived free and they are miserable. God laughs at the ungodly (Psalm 2:4). His laws mock those who rebel against Him. He is the Authority. The God who made all things should know how we should order our lives. But mankind, in his oh-so-infinite wisdom, thinks that he knows better than God. He is "tired" of the same old "don't tell me what to do" from the Bible. Man wants to invent new things and try new, exciting things! Except they never work out. (After six decades of failed experimentation upon billions of people, one would think that at least some positive results would happen). Do you think God gives us His law because He has nothing else to do? Do you think He is trying to keep us trapped by "not having fun"? He gives us His law as a present—a gift—to protect us. He know that our ideas will land us in the quicksand, and then we will try to get out on our own merits (but only sink deeper). His Law is a fence to protect us from the quicksand. The sexual revolutionaries are still stuck in the quicksand, trying to get out but have not succeeded.

- Serial Fornicators

Sometimes I just want to ask women who fornicate with multiple men, "Did you think any of these guys loved you?" The truth is, love stays. Love lasts. Love doesn't hop from one person to the other, leaving a trail of abused and used people. Love isn't fornication. Love is commitment to a person who says they will love you for the rest of your life. It is only in that context that sexual intercourse was designed. Any other application of this design is fornication. If it was love, then these women would still be with the same man, married. But, unfortunately, that is not the case.

- Walkways of Today's women

Most women, throughout history, wanted to walk down an aisle to get married. Unfortunately, that is no longer the case. Today's women walk the short sidewalk up to a coffee shop to "know" someone. Later they walk up the driveway to their home in order to fornicate. Lastly, they walk the hallway of death to abort their babies.

- The Lying Face of Evil

Billboard signs for strip clubs usually show women with seductive, facial expressions. As if they are too good for you. It is all a lie. If a person offers them enough money, their body is at the customer's disposal. They are not too good for you. They want your money. They will show their body to anyone with a few bucks in their pocket. The marketing for strip clubs is "fantasy" girls, as if these kinds of girls are hard to come by, rare and unique (when in fact, they are a dime a dozen). The women's facial expressions on the billboards are meant to portray that beautiful women are hard to come by ("But we have them here!") It is all a lie. The strip clubs hire prostitutes. They are not hard to come by.

- That Came From Someone's Mind?

It is hard to imagine, that any pornographic novel actually came from someone's perverted mind. Like, they actually thought it, typed it, submitted it to a publisher, the publisher actually published it and marketed it and customers actually bought that filth so they could experience the same filth in their mind as the author. Same goes for pornographic movies or music. Someone actually wrote a script (or lyrics) by typing it out and went through the whole process to get it in front of a depraved audience. They used their hands and feet and talent and brains to produce some filth, market the filth, spread the filth to others so they could reap the benefits. God will judge all those who glorify fornication for monetary gain.

• Paul rebukes a sexual sin in 1 Corinthians 5:1-8: “It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father’s wife. And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.” This sexual sin was grievous not only to the parties involved but to the whole church. He says to deliver that sexual sinner to Satan “for the destruction of the flesh”. He also tells them to “purge out the old leaven”. These are harsh words but needed words. This advice, though specific to this certain sexual sin, can and should be applied to all sexual sin (masturbation, pornography, adultery, homosexuality, LGBTism, etc.) The local church shouldn’t allow itself to be corrupted by such people and practices. The Church is to be holy apart from the world. Loving these sexual sinners means “delivering such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh.” For what purpose? “That the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.” The church should love sinners, but not when there is no repentance of their actions; no change of heart. The Church is imperfect but it doesn’t need unrepentant, imperfect people corrupting it even more. Sexual sin is serious to God and to Paul, hence this harsh rebuke. And, obviously the rebuke worked because in 2 Corinthians, Paul says, “Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him. For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things. To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ; Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.” (2 Corinthians 2:8-11)

The Church did forgive this sinner. They welcomed him back into the church. Paul, by extension, did the same. And so did God. God forgives sin. Sin shouldn't be affirmed; it should be tossed out of the Church. The Church is to be a shining light of holiness to the world; not a microcosm of “lesser sin”. The tossing out, at least in this case, worked towards this young man's repentance.

- No Future in Mind

Adulterers don't appreciate what they have. They have no concept of a future. Carnal feelings in the moment fail in the long run. Adulterers can't build a future on unfaithfulness to their spouse, their current adulteress, or any future adulteresses. Like Esau, they are willing to trade their birthright for a bowl of lentils. (Genesis 25:34)

- A Lesson in Abusing Women

Pornography teaches men how to use their strength and power to overpower women. It gives men ideas how to mistreat, abuse and disrespect women. Pornography is designed to empower men; to make them their full evil potential. However, real power is in loving a woman; not abusing her sexually or overpowering her. Pornography makes men feel strong, respected and powerful. And women are paid by men to create the filth of pornography. And the women actresses who do so are traitors to their own sex.

- Little Girls in Danger

This world is not safe for any little girl. It's dangerous for any parent's daughter. That is because of pornography. Pornography has created generations of men who prey on young girls. Pornography has destroyed many young girls' lives, bodies and spirits by molesters, rapists and monsters. This world is already unsafe for our young girls. The last thing we need is something we can control. All porn should be illegal, with jail time and fines for those who use it. Women and girls are suffering because of it. Men and boys cannot be trusted anyways. Why are we allowing this filth to condition them further into depravity?

- Free-flowing Molesters

In a land of free-flowing pornography, it should be no surprise as to the free-flowing molesters, rapists and murderers. Pornography is a teacher that is teaching this culture how to act. Pornography is one of the few voices that people actually listen to, take notes, practice, test and do a final exam on.

- The Most Vulnerable

Pornography puts the weakest members of a society at risk: women and children. Pornography was designed by men for men (though that is no longer the case). Men created disgusting images of debauchery to turn their fantasies into “reality”. That “reality” though has, over the years become the true reality of millions of abused children and women. Whether prostitutes, sex enslaved children, strippers, or more, it all stemmed from pornography. Pornography has devalued the weakest of society, defining people’s only value as pieces of meat. Harmless pornography is an oxymoron. Anything consumed is going to come back out somehow.

- Devaluing Women

When a man consumes pornography, he is consuming something that feeds his basest desires. He is feeding a disrespect of women. See, disrespect of women have always been in men’s heads (since the fall of mankind in Genesis 3). Pornography takes that disrespect (an unloving attitude) towards women and amplifies a million times over. It’s this attitudes that says, “Well, since no real woman will do what I want sexually, I will turn to fake women who will do it for me.” This is the objectification of women that says, “Women are only as good as their bodies”. It turns women into materialistic merchandise, to be bought and sold; used and abused. When women become just bodies, they can be discarded as easily as a worn-out sweater. When women become bodies, their souls are ignored. Their true value—being made in God’s image—is destroyed. In a man’s quest to find pleasure in only women’s sexuality, he finds neither pleasure in women’s body or spirit. It’s ironic, that the lust of women’s bodies turn out to be unsatisfying. Because to get to the lusting of women’s bodies, one has to ignore their true value (their spirit). In addition, pornography doesn’t just devalue the woman in the photo; it devalues the viewer. A man has lost sight of his own value when he consumes pornography. He destroys his life, the woman in the picture and other lives around him. The woman in the picture didn’t feel valued and is being viewed by men who don’t feel value and they go out and hurt others as if they also don’t have value. The producer and the audience are co-conspirators of this culture of devaluing people.

- The World is Dangerous

Legal pornography has created a world where no one is safe. Pornography has helped people not trust their neighbor, as everyone is a potential rape victim (not just children). Children are the victims of pornography as it robs them of their innocence, imagination and childhood. Women are the victims of pornography as they are objectified. Men are the victims of pornography as their souls are destroyed. Pornography has left a trail of destruction in its wake.

- Hypocrites’ Greatest Challenge

If an actor can fake the most intimate of acts on screen (sexual intercourse), he is considered a good actor, worthy of an Academy Award. If an actress can fake that she is being intimate with another actor, she is considered a good actress. It is almost as if manufacturing a sex scene is seen as a challenge to those in the acting industry. If they can fake the most real act between two people, then they can fake anything. Hollywood is the breeding ground for fakes. They fake intimacy on screen and in real life (i.e. short-lived marriages). They don’t live in the real world. They produce a falsified world that the rest of us are “just supposed to believe”. Their hypocrisy is sickening. They have taken God’s gift—his most intimate gift to a married man and woman—and corrupted it for entertainment purposes. It is repulsive. God will judge all corrupters of His design.

- Murdering Women

On May 14, 2018, Fingal, Ireland, 14-year old Ana Kriegel was brutally murdered by two boys who consumed violent pornography. This is the end result of pornography. There is no “soft porn” or “hardcore porn”. It is all disrespect of women that leads to violent murders like this. Any media that sees women as pieces of meat will likewise embolden men to treat women as pieces of meat. Porn is the problem. It isn’t freeing. It is destructive to mens’ souls which leads to destruction of women’s bodies.

- Me Too Bandwagon

Basically, the “me too” fad has gotten out of control. If you are a male, you are in danger of being the target of the very wealthy and prolific “Me Too” movement. I’m not denying that pornographic sexual acts happen in Hollywood. I think it has become a cash grab for many females. It is like they won the lottery when they realized they could attack innocent men in Hollywood.

- There is so much more to life than rebelling against your own sexuality. You were made for more than sin against the Almighty.

- Bodies With Holes

America is saturated in deviant-sex saturated talk. It is drenched in it, as if nothing else matters in life than satisfying your body. That is the clincher: true intimate sexuality is out for the other person’s pleasure; not your own. It is all about doing something new, different, original, shocking. Movies and music and the porno industry are at their wit’s end because they cannot find anything new, different and original. It has all been done before. Everyone is copying each other, not in love, but in hate. Everyone is simply using others’ bodies in a fit of hatred towards them. People are just bodies with holes to these sickos. This way of thinking is completely materialistic; the concept of a soul inside a body, or made in God’s image, is nowhere to be found. Orgasm at whatever cost— even if it hurts and kills another person— is worth it to these sadistic maniacs.

- Never-ending Journey to the Abyss

The porn industry is huge, not because they keep providing answers, but because they keep posing questions. The industry caters to porn addicts on a search for the ultimate sexual experience. Unfortunately, they will never find it. The porn industry knows this as they are considered the industry leader in sex. The industry's media fail addicts hearts again and again. Just when a porn addict thinks he has the answer, boom, it slips right through his fingers and off he goes on another quest; a journey into more depravity. Porn addicts want beauty, respect, joy and love. For some reason, they think they will find it in Big Porn's endless media. But they never will. In fact, they are setting themselves up for failure in ever finding true love and intimacy.

- Painful Porn

All porn actors should be prosecuted under the full extent of the law. Any actor or actress whose name is credited on a TV show, Netflix series or porn video should be heavily fined and if infractions continue, be thrown in jail for producing lewd material for mass consumption. If they want to destroy marriages, families, children, teens, people's hearts and souls. . . then they should feel it with the full weight of the law from the government. If you cause pain, you will experience pain as well.

- Just Bodies to Them

Adultery isn't just the dissolution of a marriage; it is the dissolution of love. Adultery is the exact opposite of love, as each person seeks another person in a fit of lust. They seek the other person's body, to use it for their own benefit, marriage withstanding. Unfortunately, lust, in two adulterous hearts, is more powerful than the love and commitment in a marriage vow. Vows and love and commitment must all make way for lust and temporal pleasures of using another person's body. Adulterers only think in the present; they care nothing for the future or their family's future. They only exist for this one moment. They think adultery will be a defining moment for them. Well, it will be, just not in the way they think. It will define all the ugly sin and the blackness of their own heart as they sought their own good and not the good of others. It will define their depravity as they have stepped into the world of hell.

- Keeping Up With Free Porn

Cable shows are now blatantly producing pornography. Why? Well, the demand is there. But they also have to compete with their competitors. Think about it: Snapchat and other social media platforms and apps have cut into their business of soft-porn. Now, Big Media has to produce hard-core porn to retain their customers. (If someone is going to be paying for cable, it better be “the best porn out there”.) People are getting porn for free on their smartphones every minute of the day. Cable TV is in its final days. They have to produce the most debased shows to try to keep their customers. Pornography is a sign of a desperate culture; a hopeless culture.

- Consumable Bodies

Porn only values people for their bodies. It devalues the rest of them (their heart, soul, mind, personality, etc.). It is a completely devilish philosophy to view people as just bodies and molecules to satisfy one’s darkest desires. This is the end of Western civilization. When people don’t value each other, they don’t value themselves. Western civilization will crumble on that kind of foundation. Millions of years of pornography are being consumed each year. If people are watching this filth rather than investing in their businesses, jobs, families, children, education, churches, America will crumble. Pornography actually doesn’t build up anything. It takes people’s souls away and makes them numb and useless when they aren’t looking at porn. Pornography actually doesn’t produce anything worthwhile (why America was set up in the first place).

- Civilized vs Porn

Pornography doesn’t just hurt people; it hurts those around them. Playboy and Hustler pioneered the “free speech” argument in the 60’s. Now those magazines are in their last days as hard core “free speech” is freely available on the internet. The pioneers are tossed to the side. I bet the publishers of those magazines could never imagine that their publications would be laughed at as so simple and juvenile. Now, the porn is “so much better”, for a much more “civilized and educated society”. Did you catch the oxymoron? More civilized does equate with rampant pornography. Pornography is a tribal, Neanderthalish way of life. There is no “civilized” when it comes to viewing people as flesh and bones. I don’t care how advanced our tools and technology are. They might as well be stone age tools because those tools are used to de-civilize our society. America’s basest desires are freely available on our oh-so-wonderful smartphones. Who cares? Porn is destroying children and parents and marriages and churches and schools and families. To be civilized would be to destroy all porn in America, starting with your own smartphone, your own family, your own community, your own city, your own county, your own state and your own country and your own world.

- Lust is a Lie

Lust tells a lie and then tries to bring evidence that it is the truth. But, the whole time, your flesh is trying to make a case where there is no case. A lie is a lie, despite all the other lying evidences that go in to propping it up in one’s mind.

- Male Artists and Lust

Lust is as natural to mankind as is eating or breathing or sleeping. Lust is a sin of men and women, but probably more so men than women as men are more visual. To take that a bit further, I think male artists lusting is as natural as male artists creating. Artists appreciate beauty but their appreciation soon delves into the worshiping of beauty. Worshiping of beauty is called lust. The lust of male artists’ eyes on photos and pornographic images is a very disgusting and real problem. If there is one message I would like to say to male Christian artists is this; beauty is a tool to be used by God, not something to be worshiped. Creating beauty in one’s art is good to control; not be controlled by.

- Pushing Others Away From Death

People who turn to Christ after looking at pornography their whole lives never would have known how disgusting porno is if they didn't experience how disgusting porno is. Some people have to learn by experience. Experience can turn against itself as it seeks to push others away from that experience. All ex-porno Christians should be pushing others away from porno. They've seen death. They should seek to warn people not to go down that path. "The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations." (2 Peter 2:9a)

- Seek True Knowledge

If you want knowledge (of sinful acts with women) turn your knowledge-seeking towards God. Rather than seeking what-if statements in your head, seek the truth that surpasses all understanding. Fantasy is just that: fantasy. It doesn't exist. While there is a place for imagination in teaching truths, there is also a place for imagination in growing sin in one's own heart. Our flesh is constantly trying to use our God-given imagination to destroy us. It wants to conjure up sinful scenarios and imagine what is forbidden. Other women's bodies are forbidden and men's minds (myself included) conjure up images. Men think about women's bodies a lot. That isn't holy. Men's minds are supposed to be put under subjection to Christ. Our own little fantasy is destroying our souls, men. We can't be the weak link in our families, marriages, neighborhoods and communities. We need to eradicate all the sin— no matter how small — out of our imagination. It is time to reclaim your imagination for Christ. Admit to your wife that you lust. Ask her to be on your prayer team. Stay accountable to her. Ask God for forgiveness. Ask for His strength every day to not lust. "This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would." (Galatians 5:16-17)

- Inverted Imagination

Lust is a form of inverted imagination. Man takes God's holy invention of imagination and twists it for its own pleasure. Lust is fantasy and it will destroy you. Live in the real world. Love your own wife.

- The Minds of Men

Every man on this planet deals with the sin of lust. No man is exempt except Jesus. Men are wired to desire, admire and look at beauty, but men are never content to stay there in their minds. They cross the line into lust and sexual sin. “There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.” (1 Corinthians 10:13-14 ) Satan knows mens’ weakness and he exploits it for his glory. What better way to destroy families and marriages than in the minds of men? He has to destroy men and make them guilt-ridden, which leads to ineffectiveness. He has to make their sin so apparent that they would never confess it or bring it to light. He wants men far from God, living in shame.

- The lust of another person is the hatred against one’s own body. Don’t hate yourself by lusting after others. Love yourself and love others with a true love.

- Hatred For One’s Spouse

The creation of no-fault divorce in the 60’s was a decriminalization of adultery. Faithfulness, or unfaithfulness, was what was up for grabs. Unfortunately, unfaithfulness was chosen. Hatred for one’s spouse and the love of sin was chosen. America has been suffering ever since.

- Internet Porn vs Print Porn

Internet pornography was designed to give a bigger “high” to what was commonly shown in print media. Publications like Playboy never portrayed what the internet, later, would show. The internet’s pornography was going to go after Playboy’s and Hustler’s audience. And in so doing, would try to destroy print pornography. Digital pornography would have to be more shocking, more hardcore if it was going to destroy print porn. The audience in the middle of this conflict were the only losers.

• The Church, Israel and Porn

Exodus 32 describes that there were some among the people of Israel that were sexually immoral. The people that God rescued out of slavery and brought them to freedom, soon thereafter sunk into sexual sin. “. . . and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.” (Exodus 32:6b) God didn't save his people from one slave master just so they could bring themselves under another slave master. “And the LORD said unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves.” (v.7) God was displeased with His people's turning away from His law to turn toward lawlessness. To make matters worse, this was all done after they had offered burnt and peace offerings to God (v.6a). In other words, as soon as they were done “worshipping” God, they turned to their sexual debauchery. There is a parallel here with the church. Did you know that the most popular day to view pornography online is Sunday? Yes, Sunday. That is the day of the Lord's Sabbath. 50% of Christian men watch pornography. Guaranteed, right after church, or after Sunday Night Football, they are watching porn. God will never honor the shallow praises of men when they are so consumed with everything God has said not to do. What was God's response to this sexual immorality in relation to their worship of a golden calf? “And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people: Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation.” (v9-10) God was ready to destroy them all. Only Moses begged God not to destroy them (v.11-13). Moses, instead, broke the tablets of stone (v.19), destroyed the idol (v.20), made the people drink the golden powdered-water (v.20). After inquiring from his own brother Aaron (v.22-24), Moses saw the naked people (v.25), he called for whoever was on his side (v.26). The sons of Levi came to him (v.26). “And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour. And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.” (v.27-28) Moses had the anger of the LORD within him. The death of 3,000 men is what God thinks of sexually immoral men. The sons of Levi were even blessed by the LORD for their deed (v.29). Basically, the slaughter of these men was the sacrifice that Israel needed to be saved. Idol worship is sin, and this idol worship was done within the context of a big orgy, filled with all kinds of sexual immorality. “And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book (v.33). Sexual immorality isn’t something that God takes lightly. He destroyed 3,000 men with the help of the sons of Levi. And later, “the LORD plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.” (v.35) It wasn’t just the bowing down of this golden calf that brought destruction to Israel; it was deliberate, focused, sexual rebellion against God’s Law (Ch. 20-31) in doing it.

• Pirating God’s Gift

Pornography is a thief of God’s good gift of sex. Listen, the porn industry has no right to take the beauty of women and publish that to the world. The porn industry has no right to take what God has made and circumvent His laws and “give” His gift to the world. The porn industry is much like people who “share” music online (i.e. mp3 sharing services like Napster). They have no right to share music that isn’t theirs. Only the artist/label has the right to publish their music however/whenever/wherever they want. Likewise, only God has the right to give the gift of sex how/when/where He wants and that context is only within the context of monogamous, heterosexual marriage. No man has the right to look on a woman’s beautiful naked body unless she is his wife. The gift of a woman’s body is for a husband; not a stranger. No person has the right to look on any other naked body unless it is the body of their spouse. You can’t view things that aren’t yours; that’s like pirating movies online. God is the author of nakedness and sexual intercourse. The porn industry takes God out of the picture and says, “Here is a gift for you that we invented!” Don’t listen to their lies. People go to jail for “sharing” mp3 files and pirating movies. People also go to hell for pirating God’s invention of sex.

- No Confirmation Needed

No married man should ever have to “confirm” if committing adultery is good or bad. God says it is evil and there are deadly consequences to it. God says it is evil, therefore it is evil. No one ever has to experience that evil experientially. Trust the Author of marriage.

- Porn Through All Media

Men have always used the beauty of women to earn money. Erotic art has always been used by the wealthy to bring their sick fantasies to life. Oil on canvas was used to destroy souls. Only since the invention of the printing press was mass-produced pornography an option. Then, pornography was a means of sickness that all people could attain. The printed page could destroy souls. Today, in our digital age, all men and women and children have access to sexually explicit art. The destruction of all souls is at the touch of a finger. Never in history has mankind been on the brink of total destruction.

- The number of prostitutes a country has isn't a sign of wealth. It is a sign of deep poverty. For when men have to “buy love”, men are impoverished.

- Crush Lust Now

All pretenders to God's throne will be crushed. That includes the idol of lust in our own minds. Listen to what Paul says, “For he (God the Father) hath put all things under his (Jesus') feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him. And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.” (1 Corinthians 15:27-28) If God is going to put all things under Jesus' feet, we would do well to put it under His feet now, rather than later. Why wait for Jesus to crush our lust later, when we can crush lust now? “But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.” (1 Corinthians 15:57) If you have a lust problem or a pornography problem, please know that you can conquer it. Jesus has conquered all lust and has given us the victory. You don't have to be a slave anymore to it. "Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience." (Colossians 3:5-6)

- Don't Defraud Your Neighbor

A children's Bible summarizes the tenth commandment as "Don't wish for other people's things." This is a paraphrase of Exodus 20:17 which says, "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's." I think that paraphrase is helpful. Don't wish for other people's bodies. Don't wish for the knowledge of their sexuality. Don't dream about other people's bodies. Peoples' bodies are but one part of them. Their soul is the most important part. Why defraud your neighbor by treating him/ her as a piece of flesh? Lust demeans people. It reduces them to nothing. But loving your neighbor as yourself means you will love your neighbor (by not lusting after them).

- Erotic Artwork

"Erotic" artwork or "adult artwork" is but a synonym for carnal artwork. It is artwork designed to titillate and create erotic desires. Romans 8:6 says, "For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace." Erotic artwork leads only to death. The pleasure it gives you is like a pain killer to lead you towards more death. Because you know, once you look at one erotic picture, you have to keep looking at more and more. Think of a frog in hot water. The heat is slowly turned up and then the frog is cooked. That is what erotic artwork does to ones' soul.

- He Will Honor Your Struggle Against Lust

Don't you think that if you work hard not to lust, that God will see that and reward you? He is powerful enough to supersede your weakness. But you must seek His glory first. For if you are able to overcome your lust, it will only be by His strength. “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” (Matthew 6:33)

- Zero Dividends

If you have an opportunity to lust after another woman, don't do it. What you gain isn't worth the pain you cause your own soul. Do a risk-gain assessment and you will see that lusting after women brings zero dividends. Actually, it takes more dividends than you think. Jesus says lust is but mental adultery. (Matthew 5:27) It is unsafe to dismiss His opinion and lust anyway? He tells us not to covet (Exodus 20:17). Every time you lust, you are coveting something that isn't yours. He also says be content with what you have (1Tim 6:8). If you are single, be content in that. If you are married, be content with your spouse. You don't need anything else. You only need God's grace to not want anything else.

- Men as Customers

Whores see men as a means to an end. Whoremongers view whores in the same way. Both parties use each other for their own gain (money, sexual pleasure, material possessions, etc.). Whoredom is condemned by the Lord for this purpose. Love (or even faux love) should never be used as a means to gain; only to give. When love is reinvented to be only a tool for gain, then people aren't treating others in the precious esteem that they should have for others. Men and women are made in God's image and have infinite value. Adultery and whoredom are condemned by the death penalty and for good reason. It is like a living death; a sin that can infect the whole nation.

- Porn creates starving people that will never be satisfied.

- The Flesh Isn't Evil

The incarnation of Jesus shows that physical bodies aren't evil. If physical things were evil, then Jesus would have sinned by being in a fleshly body. But He didn't. Therefore, we must conclude that physical things are tools to glorify God or glorify ourselves. The flesh isn't evil with God. It is evil without God. To be carnally mind is death (Rom 8:6). There is one glory of the earthly things and one of the heavenly. (1 Cor 15:41) God has created each realm for His glory. May we discover His world, here and now, living physical lives with God. "Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God." (Romans 6:12-13)

- Not One Thought Will Slip Through Judgment

Every lustful thought, every immoral sexual thought will be accounted for. Sin has to be accounted for in God's universe. His holiness cannot let any loose thought slip through. He cannot have any thought in his universe unaccounted for. He can't let it slide. He cannot let that thought roam free. He has to judge it and destroy it. Will you pay for your evil, sinful thoughts? What will you give the Judge of all the earth to satisfy His wrath against your evil thoughts? You will pay for your thoughts. Unless someone else has already done so. His universe has been defiled from your rebellion. His holiness has been mocked by your thoughts. You have sought to live in rebellion in a universe that isn't yours.

- Parasitical Thoughts

Lust is a form of misplaced hope. It is about hoping for something or imagining something that you shouldn't have. It is about placing your faith into something forbidden. It is about dreaming about something that you will never have. Lust desires something off limits and the whole time it is destroying you. Lust destroys you by its misplaced faith. So much energy and imagination and thought go into lust that it is physically, mentally and spiritually draining. Lust is a parasite that feeds off you. It promises you something you shouldn't be desiring in the first place. It promises joys and riches and peace that only faith in Jesus can bring. Lust is the destroyer of mens' souls. Don't desire something you cannot have. And, if you ever did obtain what your dark imagination craves, it would destroy you.

- Crucify Your Mind

Give your lustful thoughts up to God. You don't think that God will honor these sacrifices to Him? Crucify your flesh and He will honor you. "Mortify your members" (Colossians 3:5). He will take sin out of your heart. The one who said, "Peace, be still" (Mark 4:39) can take the lust out of your heart. What is impossible with man is possible with God.

- Secret Knowledge

Lust is about seeking after secret knowledge. It is about wanting knowledge that you shouldn't have. Seek after true knowledge and understanding that is only found in God, not in women's bodies. If your desire of knowledge has anything to do with a woman and everything below her neck, it is unlawful knowledge that you don't need.

- Turn Away

Turn away from pornography. Why look at things that you cannot obtain? Why look at things that aren't real? You aren't experiencing the sexual sin on the screen; you are just a passive viewer. Turn to the One who is real: the Lord Almighty. Psalm 119:37 says, "Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way."

- Weak Men, Weak Flesh

Only God can destroy the lustful thoughts in your head. You can't do it on your own. You are weak, as all men are weak. He has the strength you need to destroy your secret sins. Turn to Him. Lean on His strength.

- Psuedo-Marriage

A man and woman who sleep with each other may look like a married couple, but they aren't. They may live together and have sex together and share finances together, but they are not a married couple. They are a counterfeit to marriage. There is only one gold standard in relationships: marriage. Just because something may look like marriage, doesn't mean it is.

- Closed Marriages

There is no such thing as an open marriage. That is an oxymoron. A marriage, by definition, is closed off for one other person. That's it. Adulterers and "swingers" who try to define marriages as "open" are morons without the oxy.

- Pants and Modesty

Women should be cognizant of the types of pants they wear. Pants can be very sensual as they show every curve. Women should be modest in their apparel. Just because they are "wearing pants" means nothing. Pants can literally be skintight and even more lust-driving for men than other types of clothing. Modesty can be one example of a woman's holiness.

2020

- Men Hate Themselves

Men don't love their own bodies enough to not fornicate with any woman. They don't respect their bodies enough. They think they are "getting" more out of life by using others. But the opposite is true. They are losing in life as women are using them. Men must have low self-esteem to want to fornicate with multiple women. They don't have enough strength, courage or resolve to pick a woman and love her "till death do you part". These men think they are on a shortcut to happiness, but they aren't. Their lives will be filled with insecurity, weakness and sin as they continue to hate their own bodies. Only Jesus can bring a man out of this self-destructive behavior.

- Hating Your Own Body

Any man who feels like he can have sex with as many women as he wants to simply hates his own body. He doesn't value himself, his penis, his soul or his own life. He thinks nothing of himself. He is a shell of a man, living only for sexual pleasure. This lifestyle only reaps death. The short-term benefits are like little sips of arsenic each day. That can also be applied to masturbation, pornography, strip-clubs, prostitution, etc. A man who lives for sexual sin hates his own body. "Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.” (1 Corinthians 6:18)

- The porn industry is but the evangelist and priest of the god of lust. It is its spokesperson.

- Absence of Holiness

Lust offers you something and your flesh thinks it is so big, so significant. The truth is, what your lustful flesh is offering you is something very small and insignificant. It means nothing. Sin is the absence of holiness. Holiness brings life. So, if lust is bringing unholiness, then it is truly bringing death (the definition of nothing). “If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” (1 John 1:8-9 )

- Starving Outside the Dining Hall

The god of Lust will never satisfy. It will only give you the scraps and you will be left hungry. You will desire more, but will only be strung along, surviving off of the scraps. You will die of starvation because the scraps will never keep you alive. The God of Love, on the other hand, will give you a feast; a feast beyond imagination.

- Porn is Forn

Pornography is a form of fornication as it always leads to masturbation. Pornography is labeled as fornication in the Bible. It is against God’s design for men and women. Sexual pleasure was designed to be experienced within marriage. Not by one’s self. 1 Thessalonians 4:3-5 says, “For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication: That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor; not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God.”

- Women’s Secret Thoughts

Lust is typically seen as a “man’s” problem, but it affects women just as much, though in different ways. Consider the fact that 28% of females visit pornographic sites. But websites are not the only media to sell sex to women. Romantic novels are another way that lust is brought out of a woman's heart. A woman reading about two people having sexual intercourse only brings up feelings of lust. There is no way to read that kind of scene objectively. Talk shows, tabloids, lingerie catalogs, social media are all different ways in which a woman lusts or fantasizes about men that is not her husband. God knows all the secret thoughts of women. He knows how women sin. Women, turn to Him, not to your own fantasies. "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." (Hebrews 4:13 )

LUST,
PORNOGRAPHY,
SINFUL SEX
AND THE ROAD
THAT LEADS TO NOWHERE

BIBLEART
— B O O K S —
EST. 1999

www.bibleartbooks.com