

ABORTION AND RACISM

Margaret Sanger, the founder of Planned Parenthood, pushed for white supremacy and the extermination of the “Negro population”. She said, “We do not want word to go out that we want to exterminate the Negro population, if it ever occurs to any of their more rebellious members.” (Woman’s Body, Woman’s Right: A Social History of Birth Control in America, by Linda Gordon) Why? Because she wanted to use birth control “to create a race of thoroughbreds.” (Birth Control Review, Nov. 1921 p.2)

To put it in perspective, among White Women, there are 138 abortions for every 1,000 births. Among Black Women there were 501 abortions for every 1,000 births. African-Americans make up 12.6% of the U.S. Population, but the CDC (Center for Disease Control) reports that black women accounted for 35.4% of all abortions in 2009. (The AGI puts the percentage at 30% of the U.S. Total)

Over 14 to 15 million black babies have been killed. Black lives don’t matter to Planned Parenthood. In fact, even though African-American women only make up 14% of the population, 40% of all abortions are committed by African American women.

Hispanic women account for about 20% of all U.S. Abortions whereas African-American women account for 35%. Similarly, according to AGI (Alan Guttmacher Institute), Hispanic abortions accounted for about 25% of all U.S. Abortions in 2008 (though Hispanics only make up just 16.3% of the U.S. Population). Based on those percentages, between 683 – 829 Hispanic babies lose their lives every day. (www.abort73.com/abortion\_and\_race)

A recent study found that abortion is the leading cause of death in African-American and Hispanic populations (but failure to label abortion as murder has hidden these facts). 61.1% of all black deaths and 64% of all Hispanic deaths were caused by abortion in 2009.

Planned Parenthood continues her legacy as they target poor, minority neighborhoods. The 2010 census showed that 79% of all its surgical abortion facilities are located within walking distance of African American or Hispanic/Latino neighborhoods.

To single out particular minorities and systematically murder their children is pure evil. Racism is evil because it says, “I’m better than you because you are a certain skin tone.” Racism is promulgated by abortion facilities because they don’t believe everyone is made in God’s image. But, according to the Bible, God made all tongues, tribes and nations. He loves all people equally. Planned Parenthood hates all people equally.
